Engineering errors, human intervention to blame for landslides: Experts

BOSKY KHANNA @ Bengaluru

IN a shocking revelation, the series of recent landslides during heavy rain in the ghat sections and hilly country areas adjoining roads in Karnataka is being blamed on engineers not sticking to basic engineering principles rather than the common villain called deforestation.

According to experts, engineers are not implementing what they studied in their semesters on road engineering. While undertaking road widening works in the ghats, especially country roads (now part of state and national highways), the slopes need to be cut in such a way that the natural angles and inclines are not disturbed. But engineers cut them vertically. This loosens the soil and affects tree roots which hold the soil in place, in turn leading to landslides during heavy rain.

Prof G Madhavi Latha, Department of Civil Engineering, Indian Institute of Science (IISc), told The New Indian Express that while natural reasons also lead to landslides, there are engineering methods to check it, like nailing the soil, nets being anchored to slopes and ensuring plants/trees are not uprooted. Each terrain has a different solution, but it's not implemented.

Engineering errors are found to be the cause of landslides. They do not check the slope angles. The materials used on hilly terrain to control landslides are also a problem. Ideally, rocks should be used, but due to availability and cost they are not. So a combination of clay and sand can be used, depending upon the region.

A senior National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) official, while requesting anonymity, admitted: "Slopes to grades must be maintained, but that is not done. Inspection of roads is also not being done," the official said. P4

Daler arrested for trafficking as court upholds sentence

HARPREET BAJWA @Chandigarh

POPULAR Punjabi pop singer Daler Mehndi was on Thursday arrested after a Patiala court upheld a sentence of two years in jail in a 19-year-old case of human trafficking.

Mehndi was sent to the Patiala Central Jail where cricketer-turned-politician Navjot Singh Sidhu and former minister Bikram Majitha are lodged. His lawyer L M Gulati said, "We will immediately move a higher court with an appeal."

A trial court had in 2018 held Mehndi and his sibling Shamsher Singh guilty of illegally sending people abroad in the guise of members of his troupe, charging hefty sums for human smuggling, and sentenced them to two years in jail. Shamsher Singh died in 2017. Mehndi was granted bail and later filed an appeal in the sessions court. Additional District and Sessions Judge H S Grewal on Thursday held Mehndi guilty under Section 420 and 120B of the IPC.

A case was registered against the brothers on September 19, 2003 by Sadar police station in Patiala on a complaint filed by one Bakshish Singh and 35 others over alleged fraud. Singh claimed he had paid the singer ₹12 lakh for smuggling him to Canada but the latter failed to honour the deal. Daler had taken two troupes in 1998 and 1999 during which 10 people were taken to the US as group members and 'dropped off' illegally. In 2006, the police filed two discharge petitions claiming Mehndi was innocent but the trial court had rejected them.

GOTA GONE FOR GOOD

WITH embattled Sri Lankan President Gotabaya Rajapaksa emailing his resignation letter from Singapore on Thursday, the drama around his political exile finally came to an end. Protesters cheered his exit, as Gotabaya was the last of the powerful Rajapaksa clan to bow out of office following an unprecedented mass uprising.

There was tenuous calm in Colombo as thousands of protesters changed tack and vacated government buildings they had occupied since July 9.

The business of government formation, too, gathered pace as the Opposition set a timeline for choosing a new prime ministerial candidate, saying a consensus name will be announced by Friday 10 am. The decision was made known by the Samagi Jana Balawegaya, the biggest Opposition party.

Its member of Parliament Harsha De Silva tweeted, "Responding to request by PM @RW_UNP to @ParliamentLK Speaker to propose a name by consensus for PM, opposition parties will today discuss with various parties and groups in government to get such consensus. We will propose this name to Speaker at 10am tomorrow. #SriLankaCrisis."

While Gotabaya mailed his resignation letter to Speaker Mahinda Yapa Abeywardena, the latter's office was fact-checking it. The Speaker's media secretary Indunil Abeywardena said it was received through the Sri Lanka High Commission in Singapore.

"The Speaker wishes to inform that an official statement on this would be made tomorrow (Friday) after the verification process and legal formalities," Abeywardena said. The Speaker wants to see the original signature. The original will be brought to Colombo from Singapore in the next available flight by a diplomatic officer.

Maldives unexpectedly jumped into the resignation drama with Speaker Mohamed Nasheed tweeting, "Sri Lankan President GR has resigned. I hope Sri Lanka can now move forward." Nasheed had negotiated his escape to Male. P12

Fertiliser supply to India hit by Ukraine war

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

UNION MINISTER for Chemicals and Fertilisers, Mansukh Mandaviya said on Thursday that the ongoing Russia-Ukraine war has hit the supply of fertilisers which has resulted in the increase in its prices. Speaking to reporters in Bengaluru, the minister, however, said the Centre is taking measures to ensure that farmers are not impacted by it.

"There is difficulty in bringing raw materials available in Russia and Ukraine including diammonium phosphate along with nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium urea fertiliser. China has reduced its production of fertilisers. Urea and complex fertiliser prices have increased. However, PM Narendra Modi has instructed the ministry to ensure that the farmers are not impacted by the crisis and also instructed us that there should not be any shortage in supply of fertilisers," he said. To ensure prices in international market will not have any impact on farmers, the prices of DAP, NPK and urea fertilisers have not been changed despite hike in price of raw materials, he added.

Earlier, speaking at the National Conference of State Agriculture and Horticulture Ministers, Mandaviya appealed to all governments to popularise nano fertiliser developed in India which can be a replacement for fertilisers which are imported. P4

K'taka govt mulls making masks must

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

THE state government is planning to make wearing of masks mandatory at public places and also impose penalties on those not wearing them in Bengaluru. This is being planned as the number of Covid-19 cases in the state capital is rising, said Health Minister Dr K Sudhakar on Thursday.

The minister said although the number of Covid-19 positive patients admitted to hospitals has fallen significantly, people should not be complacent, and should take precautionary measures.

Also as part of precautionary measures, the Union government on Wednesday announced free booster dose vaccination for people who are above 18 years. "We have already discussed this for Karnataka and plan to go for aggressive vaccination drives," he said.

The minister said people had become complacent and were not wearing masks even as the cases are on the rise. P3

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

SENIOR IPS officer and Additional Director General of Police Amrit Paul's police custody was extended by three days till July 15, by the first additional chief metropolitan magistrate court. Paul was produced before the court on Wednesday.

The officer was arrested on July 4 in the police sub-inspector (PSI) recruitment scam. New master plan for Hampi: Each village can have up to 10 home stays

KIRAN BALANNANAVAR @Hosapete

WITH an aim to generate local employment and boost tourism, the Hampi World Heritage Area Management Authority (HWHAMA) has come out with a master plan for Hampi heritage area and buffer zone as per which each revenue village can have 10 home stay facilities for tourists. The buildings and operations will be monitored by local authorities to ensure that the new structures suit the local environment.

While several local organisations were upset with the administration for the recent crackdown on illegal home stays, the master plan is expected to provide some relief.

HWHAMA has prepared the plan in consultation with Archaeological Survey of India and Unesco. The tenders for other developmental works under the master plan are expected to be called after July 27.

Last month, the district administration had shut down 16 illegal home stays and resorts that were operating close to Hampi heritage area. The new home stays that will be allowed under the new master plan will come on the periphery of Hampi heritage area and a few in the buffer zone.

Speaking to TNIE, Tourism Minister Anand Singh B S said that the permission for the new home stays and resorts in the periphery of Hampi heritage area will help boost tourism as well as local employment. "The HWHAMA has been formed to protect and preserve Hampi's heritage and culture. The new structures have to follow the guidelines issued by the HWHAMA and UNESCO," the minister said.

> Six villages fall under the core area. About 191.65 sq km is buffer zone, including Anegundi in Koppal district. Also, 246.35 sq km is considered peripheral zone. New developments can come up in these two zones

New House list of banned words kicks up a storm

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

WHAT is common between jumlajeevi, dohra charitra, vinash purash and taanashah? These are among the words identified as unfit for use in Parliament, according to a new list of such words compiled by the Lok Sabha secretariat.

While these are words used by Opposition politicians to target the ruling dispensation, some commonly used words such as 'drama', 'ashamed', 'betrayed', 'abused', 'hypocrisy', 'incompetent', and even 'sexual harassment' have made it to the Lok Sabha secretariat's list.

Expectedly, the move has created a furore ahead of the monsoon session with the Opposition accusing the Centre of issuing a 'gag order'. Lok Sabha Speaker Om Birla clarified there is nothing new as the list has been periodically compiled since 1954, adding that no word is banned. He said the list is a compilation of words that have been expunged. The Speaker said members are free to express their views while maintaining decorum of the House.

Several words and expressions, even those used commonly, get routinely expunged during legislative proceedings if a member protests and the presiding officer finds them inapt in a particular context.

The LS Secretariat said some words may not be deemed unparliamentary unless read in conjunction with the other expressions spoken during the parliamentary proceedings.

However, the Opposition is unconvinced with several MPs saying they will continue to use these words.

"Ashamed. Abused. Betrayed. Corrupt. Hypocrisy. Incompetent. I will use all these words," said TMC's Rajya Sabha MP Derek O'Brien.

TEXTBOOKS MISS THE BUS TO SCHOOLS, NO STEPS IN SIGHT

DONNA EVA @ Bengaluru

THE issues plaguing Karnataka schools is massive delay in providing textbooks to students. "It is a failed system. Every year, there are issues, resulting in a delay of six to eight months. Sometimes, we will not even receive textbooks for that year," Karnataka Associated Managements of Primary and Secondary Schools General Secretary Shashi Kumar told TNIE.

Textbooks are yet to reach everywhere with classes beginning early in May to facilitate learning recovery programme. The distribution has been delayed due to a paper shortage and Covid-19 related issues. Primary and Secondary Education Minister BC Nagesh has said textbooks had been issued earlier than the usual schedule in October. Still, it was distributed two months after schools began.

Karnataka Textbook Society (KTBS) Managing Director told TNIE that a majority of the textbooks had already been printed. "As of now, 97 per cent of textbooks have been printed, 95.5 per cent supplied and 93 per cent received at block education offices across the state. The total process will be completed in a week," he said.

"This is a recurring issue since the inception of KTBS. Every year, we have to travel around 50 km to block education offices to beg for textbooks," Kumar told TNIE.

Former principal for MES Teacher's Colony Dr HS Ganesh Bhatt told TNIE the process would be delayed unless KTBS treated textbooks as a continuous affair with myriad reasons impacting distribution. "Government should take delay in distribution seriously. KTBS must continuously monitor number of textbooks needed and revisions. It should not be done academic year-wise," he said and said the delay was due to the lengthy process of revisions and suggestions as well as information from BEOs on number of textbooks needed and quality of printers.

Notification on delimitation out

YACOOB MOHAMMAD
@ Bengaluru

AFTER completion of the 15-day period for filing of objections on the ward delimitation process for 243 wards in Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike, the state government on Thursday issued a final order regarding the same. With this exercise, the government is just a few steps away from holding the much-awaited elections to the BBMP.

The 2,500-plus objections were disposed of, and some minor alterations were done based on recommendations and suggestions from the public.

The government, on January 1, 2021, had formed a delimitation committee under the BBMP Chief Commissioner. The committee, on June 9, had submitted the draft bill to the government. Following this, 15 days' time was set for public objections on ward delimitation. The government notification states that delimitation was done based on the 2011 census. Once the process was over, the government issued the final order, recognizing 243 wards.

A pile of objections

BBMP Chief Commissioner Tushar Girinath said that 3,833 objections were filed before the Urban Development Department till July 7 regarding ward delimitation.

Ward named after Puneeth

In recognition of late actor Puneeth Rajkumar's contribution towards cinema as well as social work, the government has announced that it will name Ward 55 after him.

DJ Halli name to stay

The government has retained ward 77 as DJ Halli. Recently, it was called Modi Garden. With hundreds of objections coming from Kengeri surroundings in Yesvantpur assembly, the government has retained it as Kengeri only.

Name Idgah Maidan after Wadiyar: Mohan

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

TWO days after the Chamarajpet bandh over controversy regarding the Idgah Maidan ownership, Bengaluru Central MP PC Mohan met Chief Commissioner Tushar Girinath and gave a representation to name the ground after Mysuru Maharaja Chamarajendra Wadiyar. He suggested that events like I-Day, Ambedkar Jayanti, Rajyotsava and other government programmes be held at the ground.

He contended that permission is not required to celebrate Hindu festivals at the ground. "The bandh on July 12 in and around Chamarajpet was successful. The Idgah Maidan will remain a playground, and it is BBMP's property," he said. "If BBMP denies permission, it would be the biggest insult to the nation," he said. Nobody is objecting to Muslims offering prayers but Hindu festivals should also be held, he said.

In five years, BMTF resolved 2,449 petitions

YACOOB MOHAMMAD
@ Bengaluru

THE Bengaluru Metropolitan Task Force (BMTF) has released data of the past five years which shows that of the 3,345 petitions from 2017, 2,449 have been resolved, and 896 are still pending. The agency has filed 281 criminal cases, 97 chargesheets and B report in 34 cases related to BBMP while 130 cases are under investigation.

In 2017, data shows that 477 petitions to reclaim the land belonging to agencies like BBMP, BWSSB, BDA were filed, and BMTF has disposed of 475. In 2018, the agency had received 471 petitions and 456 cases were disposed of while in 2019, 628 petitions were received of which 581 were disposed of. In 2020, 290 petitions were received and 398 were disposed of, and in 2021, of 715 petitions, 405 were disposed of. In 2022 till June, 564 petitions were received and 132 disposed of. Following the pandemic, pending cases have increased marginally, an officer said. Some RTI activists had alleged the agency has received thousands of petitions and filed only 13 B reports in cases related to BBMP properties.

"Cases have been filed under provisions of Karnataka Municipal Corporation Act 1976, The Bengaluru Development Act 1976, The Karnataka Municipalities Act, 1964, The Bangalore Water Supply and Sewerage Act 1964 and Karnataka Slum Areas (Improvement and clearance Act, 1973, and government properties worth hundreds of crores have been reclaimed over the past five years. After Karnataka Municipal Corporation Act 1976 was repealed and BBMP Act 2020 was enacted, the agency has been asking for more powers to book land grabbers," said Ramachandra Rao, ADGP, BMTF.

Bulk renting of shops in Namma Metro stations to begin soon

S LALITHA @ Bengaluru

BMRCL is going for a radical approach to rent out vast commercial space inside the stations of both its Phase-I and Phase-II network. Bulk allotment of shops followed by online auction for spaces will be adopted.

Speaking to TNIE, BMRCL Managing Director Anjum Parwez said that instead of asking companies to bid, the agency has decided to go in for a fixed rate system with a first come first serve policy for allotment. The tenders are likely to be floated in a week.

Companies have an option of a three-month contract, he added. "The rental cost will be much higher, particularly for A+ Metro stations (busiest stations) at ₹2,000 per sq ft. Contract options for six months, 1 year and up to 3 years will be there. The longer the duration, the higher will be the discount which would be substantial," he said. The procedure would be in place for a month. A bidder can to take up maximum of 10 kiosks spread across a minimum of five stations, he added. The space to be allotted has been raised from the 100 sq ft earmarked for an outlet to 150-200 sq ft. An online auction of shops will be held with a 45-day time limit for bidding. Shops which had failed to find any bidders or vacated due to huge losses during Covid will be covered. "BMRCL is looking to earn between Rs 50 crore and Rs 60 crore per annum," he said.

Financial bids open for Sarjapur-Hebbal Line

BMRCL on Wednesday opened financial bids in connection with preparation of a Detailed Project Report for the 37-km Sarjapur-Hebbal Line, said MD Anjum Parwez. The technical bids have just been completed with nine out of 10 bidders meeting the criteria. "With 50 percent of the Line going underground, the land acquisition cost will be substantially less compared to an elevated line. The estimated cost of the Line is likely to be Rs 15,000 crore," he said. The DPR will cost around Rs 1.6 crore, said another official.

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

15th July: Pisces is my sign of the day. On those days, like today, when Pisces is strong, we can expect a healthy dose of inspiration, but also a possibility of periodic confusion. If plans go awry we can blame the stars! But we can also take appropriate action by paying close attention to all essential details.

ARIES
(Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
At the risk of opening up a few old wounds, you should face awkward issues at home. Mars, the planet of sharp and incisive thoughts, indicates that you should probe deeply, looking for the underlying causes. The Moon, meanwhile, urges you to be compassionate and tolerant of what you find.

TAURUS
(Apr. 21 - May 21)
Travel is always an emotional experience, partly because of the location of the sentimental sign Cancer in your solar chart. Therefore we may surmise that although you're going through a lively phase, nostalgic trips may be the most satisfying: there's nothing wrong with turning the clock back.

GEMINI
(May 22 - June 21)
By all means make a fuss and stamp your foot, especially if money is changing hands. It doesn't matter whether you're popping to the corner shop or moving a fortune around the world, you know what you want. And other people must listen! If they don't, then they'll lose out.

CANCER
(June 22 - July 23)
Yours is a dual sign, acutely sensitive one moment, pugnacious the next. You're going to combine both elements today, which means you'll have to pick your target carefully or rue the consequences. If you blame the wrong person then they'll be out to get their own back!

LEO
(July 24 - Aug. 23)
Deep within your psyche there lies a fair amount of anger. At the moment this is unconscious, but even buried feelings can distort your everyday behaviour, so do try not to take resentments out on people who have done nothing wrong, however strongly you feel.

VIRGO
(Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
The whole emphasis in your chart is slanted towards public affairs, both social and professional. It therefore stands to reason that you will do your best if you are out in the world, meeting and overcoming new challenges. There's nothing to be gained from burying your head in the sand.

LIBRA
(Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
You may now begin to feel that the carpet is being pulled from under your feet at home. Don't be unduly concerned if you imagine that you are being undermined or pulled back to the past, for you will eventually see the benefits of a backwards step.

SCORPIO
(Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
What you really must do now is ensure that legal questions are faced fair and square. Also, get in touch with family members who are far away or overseas. And, lastly, do finalise travel plans, otherwise you'll find that you've missed the boat or lost your way!

SAGITTARIUS
(Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
You have to cope with so many personal changes that you may not have time to catch your breath. Rearranging social engagements is one thing, but you will probably do best to concentrate on necessities, like the money situation: it's time to settle your debts and balance the books.

CAPRICORN
(Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
Venus' profoundly pleasant relationship with Saturn is excellent from the financial stance, pointing to a steady increase in your earnings as a result of your own past efforts. It also encourages you to make personal vows: luck doesn't come into it.

AQUARIUS
(Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
Saturn, a planet representing fate, is tied to your sign via an aspect signifying free will. This is therefore a profound moment which shows that your personal desires are harmonised with life's deeper purpose: it's your self-discipline which saves the day.

PISCES
(Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
Although a financial transaction did not work out as hoped, you may have a chance to make up for lost ground over the coming four weeks. In the meantime, put extra effort into enjoyment. You owe it to yourself. And, as you know, if you don't help yourself, then nobody else will.

Free booster drive to last 75 days

Organised to mark Azadi ka Amrut Mahotsav; Lasika Melas planned on Wednesdays

SHILPA P @ Bengaluru

CENTRAL guidelines were issued on Thursday for the free booster dose for the 18+ age group, starting Friday. The 'Covid vaccine Amrit Mahotsav campaign' will be launched at 8,000 government centres for those between 18 and 59 years, while those above 60 years are already getting it free of cost, according to Dr Arundathi Chandrashekar, Mission Director of State, National Health Mission, and in-charge of vaccination drives.

The drive will last 75 days on the occasion of 'Azadi ka Amrut Mahotsav', from July 15 to September 30, as per the Union health ministry's directives.

The health department is ready with an action plan to vaccinate 4.34 crore people above 18 years of age, and has stock of 8.84 lakh doses of Covishield and 31.55 lakh doses of Covaxin. Officials have come up with district-level microplans for workplaces (vaccination at IT companies, industries, government officers), along with 'Ghar Dastak' (Mane Mane Lasika Mithra) and hold Lasika Melas on Wednesdays.

On the booster dose, Karnataka State Covid Technical Advisory Committee head Dr M K Sudarshan said, "This was long overdue, and should continue beyond 75 days. TAC had recommended this to the state government months ago. This will reduce severity of the disease, particularly those with comorbidities, reduce hospitalisations and prevent deaths." On reluctance of people for vaccination, he said, "There was no fear of Covid since April and even with this drive, I don't foresee large crowds before government hospitals for vaccination."

AS ON THURSDAY

3,96,498 people between 18 to 59 years of age vaccinated with precautionary dose; 4.09 crore have received both first and second dose as against target of 4,12,60,000

27,61,752 people above 60 years of age are vaccinated with precautionary dose; 73 lakh have got first dose as against target of 76,56,000, and 74 lakh have got second dose

CM to take final call on fine

"WE may have to think about fining people who do not wear masks. Before it gets out of hand, we need to take all precautionary measures. It is in the discussion stage and we will take a final call after consulting the CM," he added.

With active Covid-19 cases in Mumbai (3,318) and Delhi (1,960) reducing, Bengaluru now has the highest number of active cases among metropolitan cities (6,158). However, the number of clusters in Bengaluru have reduced to 12, including 10 in Mahadevapura zone and one each in West and Yelahanka zones. All these clusters are in apartments wherein there are a large number of IT employees. These clusters were detected when they underwent Covid tests for international travel.

With this in the background, Sudhakar pointed out that at present when someone is infected, as symptoms are not severe and no hospitalisation is required, people tend to take it casually. "We do not know much about post-Covid developments as it is just 2.5 years old. We do not know what the post-Covid effects are. They vary from person to person. But we need to be watchful. We should be taking all precautionary measures," he said.

Waiting for kids' jab: Minister

Union Health Minister Mansukh Mandaviya said all decisions taken by the government on vaccination are based on experts' recommendations. So far, they have not advised any vaccination for children below 12 years. He said precautionary doses which were announced for free for all above 18 years on Wednesday is expected to improve immunity of this large population.

RAIN IS HERE, MALARIA, DENGUE, FILARIASIS NEW HEADACHE FOR HEALTH DEPT

In the wake of rain, the health department is on high alert and has come up an action plan to check outbreak of vector and water-borne diseases, Health Minister Dr K Sudhakar said. He said rain and flood-like situation in the state is leading to increased mosquitogenic conditions and a surge in malaria, dengue, chikungunya, Japanese encephalitis, lymphatic filariasis, and also water-borne diseases. ENS

ACTION PLAN

District administrations instructed to ensure preparedness to respond to outbreak of diseases, and ensure treatment and management of cases at all healthcare facilities

Instructions given to set up a control room for close monitoring and coordination at all levels

Officers directed to form rapid response teams at the district and taluk level, and be ready with the requisite equipment and mobility support, including diagnostic kits, drugs, insecticide, larvicide, to respond to any emerging health situation

Officials instructed to have micro-plan ready for flood-prone areas, to implement necessary control measures

Medical officers at PHCs instructed to increase or strengthen disease-specific surveillance activities, analyse data at micro-level to detect upsurge in vector-borne diseases, so containment measures can be taken

District and taluk health officers directed to visit areas at risk to ensure surveillance activities and availability of necessary logistics. They have been asked to monitor entomological indices or parameters, predict impending outbreaks, so that preventive measures can be implemented in time

Officers asked to hold interdepartmental coordination meetings, to seek necessary cooperation on their roles during flood or outbreak situations

Kickboxer dies two days after bout, sparks debate on safety

PRAVEEN KUMAR & NAMRATA SINDWANI @Bengaluru

IN an incident that puts the spotlight on safety measures during combat sporting events, a 23-year-old kickboxer died on Wednesday after sustaining injuries during a bout at the K1 Kickboxing Championship on Sunday. The event was organised at Pai International building in Jnanajyothi Nagar in the city.

Following the unfortunate death of S Nikhil, his family and general secretary of the Karnataka Kickboxing Association alleged that a doctor and ambulance were not present at the venue. The event organiser, however, claimed that all necessary measures were in place, and two doctors were present at the venue.

Nikhil, a resident of KR Mohalla in Mysuru, had come to Bengaluru to participate in the championship. He was working with a private company after completing electrical ITI.

His uncle, Kiran, claimed they were intimated very late that Nikhil had sustained injuries during the bout. "There was no proper explanation from the organiser. We were only informed that Nikhil was hospitalised, following an injury. We came to the hospital from Mysuru, but not satisfied with the treatment, we shifted him to another private hospital in Yeshwanthpur where we were told it was too late. The organiser, coach and everybody are at fault," he told TNIE.

After Nikhil's death, his 62-year-old father P Suresh, a retired employee, filed a complaint against organiser Navin Ravishankar and others at Jnanabharathi police station on Wednesday morning. Police registered a case of death due to negligence.

Reacting to the allegations, Ravishankar, a Muay Thai master, claimed that all standard operating procedures were followed. "Two doctors were present during the event. After Nikhil collapsed, the doctors examined him immediately. Based on their instructions, he was shifted in a private vehicle stationed in the basement. The rule says that if the hospital is within 5km, there is no need for an ambulance. The venue was around 4km from the hospital. After the incident, I called Nikhil's father and was with him in hospital. It is very unfortunate," he told TNIE.

Ravishankar is aware of the police complaint against him. "It is obvious that after losing a family member, any person will make allegations. Consent was taken from Nikhil before the fight. All mandatory documents are in place and will be submitted to police," he added.

Meanwhile, Jnanabharathi police said it is too early to take action based on the allegations. "Versions of the other side also need to be heard. The complaint was registered as the father suspected foul play behind his son's death," said an officer.

Jitendra Shetty, Deputy Director, Department of Youth Empowerment and Sports, pointed out that since the event was organised on private premises, they were not responsible.

'NO DOCTORS WERE PRESENT'

Ravi C, general secretary, Karnataka Kickboxing Association, claimed there was neither an ambulance nor a doctor at the venue. "The event took place on the 5th floor, which was very congested and lacked ventilation. There should have been a proper boxing ring instead of a floor ring," he said, and claimed the referee did not look experienced. When Nikhil collapsed, he did not immediately remove his teeth guard and helmet. "If proper first aid was given, the whole situation could have been avoided," he said. He said the organisers must be enrolled under a state body, and take permission from the jurisdictional police station to organise the event. A physical fitness certificate should also be provided by the participant.

TOUGH QUESTIONS

Can we expect fair probe into PSI scam, asks HC

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

Judge says probe team members are ADGP's subordinates | Counsel submits case details in sealed cover

OBSERVING that the PSI scam is a classic case of "fence eating the crop" and an act of terror against society, the Karnataka High Court on Thursday asked a straight question to the prosecution: how can it expect a fair investigation at the hands of officers below the rank of ADGP Amrit Paul, and are they not afraid of the top officer?

Justice HP Sandesh posed this question to State Public Prosecutor (SPP) VS Hegde while hearing bail pleas filed by some candidates and middlemen involved in the scam.

Observing that investigating officers will naturally be afraid of the ADGP, Justice Sandesh said the scam affects all of society. "The ADGP, who was at the helm of affairs, indulged in tampering of answer sheets which were in his custody. How can this court expect a fair investigation at the hands of officials below his rank?" he asked.

Questioning the SPP on why Paul's statement was not recorded in the past 10 days, and there was no progress in investigation, the court said, "It shows you are not taking up investigation in the right manner... will you expect this court to shut its eyes? It appears that it is forcing this court to summon the Director General of Police, CID."

The SPP submitted that the DGP himself is monitoring the investigation, considering the sensitivity of the case. Progress of the investigation is placed before court in a sealed cover, which includes details of changes in OMR sheets and the modus operandi, including use of Bluetooth to receive answers, he argued. He said the ADGP's house was searched, his bank accounts were frozen, and Call Data Record (CDR) analysis was under way. He sought three more days of police custody. "I can assure you there is no apprehension or fear among officials investigating the case," he told the court.

Police officers arrested, amount seized

Disclosing that one ADGP, two RPI, one fingerprint expert, two PSI and one RSI were arrested in the case, the SPP said a total of Rs 2.5 crore was recovered from the accused. There was a systematic conspiracy among candidates, mediators and police officers, and there were also money trails, he said. Since investigation is almost at the fag-end, the accused are not entitled to bail, he argued.

The ADGP's CDR was being analysed to find out the method used, and level of his involvement. However, his cell phone had been formatted and nothing is available on it, he added. The next hearing is on Wednesday.

Siddu wants narco test on Amrit Paul

ENS @ Kalaburagi

CONGRESS Legislature Party leader Siddaramaiah on Thursday demanded that the CID subject Amrit Paul, who was the ADGP of recruitment wing, to a narco analysis test to know the involvement of politicians in the PSI recruitment scam.

The former CM alleged the involvement of several ministers and their aides in the scam. "To bring out the truth, this narco analysis test is needed," he told media persons at Kalaburagi airport. Siddaramaiah also felt the need for a detailed probe into a dairy said to be written by Paul.

When his attention was drawn on the allegations of Higher Education Minister Dr CN Ashwath Narayan that Siddaramaiah too was involved in PSI scam as many people were appointed as PSIs by unfair means when the latter was the CM, the Badami MLA asked why the minister was silent when he was in the opposition. On flood situation in Karnataka, Siddaramaiah alleged that the State Government has failed to take precautionary measures. "The district in-charge ministers failed to visit their respective districts. After the CM visited the rain-hit districts, the ministers have started visiting their allotted districts," he criticised.

On corruption, he said, "There is rampant corruption. The government has fixed a price for transfers like how rates of dishes are displayed in hotels."

Court allows Paul to meet family

AMRIT PAUL'S phone was sent to the Forensic Science Laboratory (FSL), Madiwala.

On Paul's request, the court allowed his family to meet him for 30 minutes every day, till his custody ends.

Since the Police Sub-Inspector recruitment scam involves payment by each candidate to clear the exams, the CID will have to establish the money trail in each candidate's case, and prove it on record to back up oral statements of the witnesses/accused to obtain conviction.

The agency had reportedly recovered around Rs 1.75 crore from the house of Sridhar, head constable, Central Armed Reserve (CAR), in May.

6 engineering colleges will be upgraded on par with IITs

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

CHIEF Minister Basavaraj Bommai on Thursday said that as many as six engineering colleges in Karnataka will be upgraded on par with the Indian Institutes of Science (IITs) to attract talent.

"ITIs have been upgraded and GTTCs have been modernised. Now, six prominent engineering colleges will be upgraded on par with IITs with quality education," Bommai said at a function organised to mark the World Youth Skills Day at the banquet hall in Vidhana Soudha. He also said that primary knowledge on technical education will be imparted to students of Classes 8, 9 and 10 from next academic year. As part of women empowerment, 5 lakh women from self-help groups will be trained in various skills, he said.

He shared an anecdote of his friend in Australia who had miserably failed by investing in the stock market but recovered after he became a carpenter by using his skills.

"In order to give a thrust to conventional skills, the government has launched one district one skill programme," he added. Higher Education, IT &BT and Skill Development Minister Dr CN Ashwath Narayan informed that the government has tied up with NGOs to impart skills to citizens in every district. "Infosys alone has trained about 27 lakh youth of whom 17 lakh have got the jobs," he said.

Vow taken back: BJP MLA drops plan to donate chariot to temple

MANJU SHETTAR @ Bengaluru

MUDIGERE MLA MP Kumaraswamy has withdrawn his vow of donating a wooden chariot to the Kalanatheshwara Temple in Palguni village. The MLA had made the vow in 2019 of donating the chariot to the temple if BJP strongman BS Yediyurappa became the CM.

Speaking to The New Indian Express, the MLA said that more than Rs 40 lakh was required and he had sought Rs 25 lakh help from the government. "As I didn't get sufficient money, including Rs 25 lakh from the government, I have dropped the plan of donating the chariot. Also, Yediyurappa is no longer the CM," he said. The MLA said he even tried to take loans.

"I have told the residents of the village to arrange money to order for a chariot. However, so far they have managed to collect only Rs 50,000 from devotees," he said.

In January 2021, Kumaraswamy had written to the then CM Yediyurappa asking for Rs 25 lakh. Yediyurappa had considered the request and instructed the then Additional Chief Secretary, Revenue Department, to treat it as a 'special case' and sanction Rs 25 lakh to Kalanatheshwara temple. However, the money was not released.

Highways, homes flooded in Belagavi

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Belagavi

HEAVY rain continued to lash flood-prone areas of Belagavi on Thursday affecting normal life damaging properties.

A portion of the state highway connecting Khanapur to Goa via Hemadga was submerged in the overflowing Alatra lake bringing traffic on the route to a grinding halt. Many low-lying residential localities in Belagavi city were inundated. Hemadga Road was under 4 ft-deep water as the rain picked up pace from Thursday morning in and around the forest region of Khanapur.

The police placed barricades on both ends of the submerged road to close traffic on the state highway. At least 10 houses were flooded in Annapurneshwari Nagar and Keshav Nagar. Ward 50 corporator Sarika Patil said,"Waterlogging has been reported from many low-lying areas due to lack of a systematic UGD pipeline and a facility to divert water from the overflowing nalas. Due to fixing of pavers on the roadside, many roads were flooded. Although a proposal for a new UGD line has been cleared, the government is yet to implement it,'' she said.

NO LET-UP IN RAIN IN KODAGU

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Madikeri

RAIN continues to wreak havoc across Kodagu even as the district has recorded nearly 40 inches of rainfall from June this year. Several hoblis in the district have recorded over 500 per cent excess rainfall compared to the previous year.

Meanwhile, the extent of damage to properties and roads is adding up even as the district is on orange alert. Shanthalli hobli in Somwarpet taluk has recorded 577 per cent excess rainfall this year. Water level in Harangi reservoir stood at 2,854.17 ft as against the maximum capacity of 2,859 ft capacity with an outflow of 13,166 cusecs.

Many minor landslides have been reported. Mangalauru-Madikeri highway, Bhagamandala-Karike, Thalathmane-Madikeri, Madikeri-Kutta highway and Hattiholey roads among several other rural roads have suffered damage following landslides. The loss incurred by the Public Works Department is estimated at Rs 2,975.50 lakh. As on Wednesday, over hundred houses have suffered severe and partial damage following incessant rainfall. A total of 41 families, including residents of Madikeri, Virajpet and Kushalnagar taluks, have been shifted to relief centres.

'To avoid survey, works done on short stretches'

"USUALLY, whenever road works are done, especially in the ghats and highways, soil and geological experts' survey is required. But now to avoid it, road works on short stretches are undertaken. These do not require surveys and if you observe such stretches — like Shiradi Ghat — they are seeing frequent landslides," the official said. A PWD official admitted wherever there has been human intervention, there have been landslides. But ignoring basic road engineering principles is shocking behaviour on the part of the engineers concerned, he said. When a terrain is cut open for works, and plants and trees are uprooted, for the roots to take hold of the soil again takes up to 15 years. But no stretch is left untouched for so long and no time is allowed for nature to repair itself, as the roads are being constantly upgraded without adhering to basic road engineering principles, leading to landslides, he said.

The PWD and NHAI officials admitted that drains in road shoulders, which act as buffer and control friction, are no longer dug and maintained, which is also a reason for the landslides.

Road engineer M N Srihari said, "Maintaining slopes and ensuring that natural pores are not disturbed are taught to engineers in the 6th semester of their engineering courses. But they do not implement it."

Conservationists from Kodagu asserted that there has been no deforestation since 1994 in many parts of Western Ghats. Heavy rain does make the soil loose, but if proper slopes and roadside drains are maintained, water will flow and damage can be minimised, they felt.

'Need to implement MSP for all agri produce'

ENS @ Bengaluru

A delegation of farmers met CM Basavraj Bommai and urged him to pay heed to their demands. The delegation requested Bommai to use the National Conference of State Agriculture and Horticulture Ministers conference being held in Bengaluru to think about the schemes conducive for the development of farmers. Kurubur Shanthakumar, president, Karnataka State Federation of Farmers' Associations, said there is an urgent need to implement the Minimum Support Price (MSP) for all agricultural produce. He said MSP norms as recommended by the Dr Swaminathan Committee need to be implemented. He requested the government to fix the purchase price of sugarcane on fair terms.

He said farmers will not get justice if the State Government does not change the criteria for assessing rain damage and the yardstick to estimate crop loss. "It is not enough for the CM and ministers to visit the rain-affected areas... they need to ensure that the sufferings of farmers are redressed," he added.

"It is unfair that they are levying GST on agricultural produce of 'poor farmers', while granting exemption to gambling, betting, casinos... this is not justified," he added.

An Indian Navy helicopter drops food packets to flood-affected residents of Koida village, Eluru district on Thursday | EXPRESS

HIGH alert was sounded for 524 villages in 42 mandals spread across the twin Godavari districts, Kakinada, Eluru, Alluri Sitarama Raju (ASR) and Dr BR Ambedkar Konaseema districts on Thursday. Third warning signal could be issued any time.

At 9:00 pm, the discharge levels were at 17.07 lakh cusecs. Officials opined that at this rate the flood levels might cross 25 lakh cusecs by Saturday morning.

Following torrential rains in the upper catchment areas, the water-level at Sir Arthur Cotton Barrage is expected to cross 21.5 feet in the next 48 hours.

At Polavaram project spillway, floodwater levels touched 35 metres. The outflow from the project stood at over 16 lakh cusecs. With floodwater at Bhadrachalam increasing by the minute, inflows to Polavaram, and thereafter to Dowaleswaram are expected to rise rapidly.

Besides the Agency areas in the Godavari Delta, Konaseema district is likely to face the flood fury. As many as 51 river islets (lanka villages) in Konaseema were affected, whereas in Eluru, Koida and Koraturu villages of Velurupadu mandal were cut off. As many as 33 weak points were identified along the flood banks of both Godavari districts.

Responding to Eluru district Collector Prasanna Venkatesh's request for rescue and relief operations, the Indian Navy deployed two medium-lift UH-3H helicopters from INS Dega at Visakhapatnam. The choppers provided humanitarian assistance to the waterlogged areas at Koida (7 habitations) and Katkur (9 habitations) in Velarupadu mandal.

Relief materials, including food items, medicines, milk and bread, were air-dropped to the marooned villagers. Over 2,000 kg of relief materials were delivered by the helicopters that were operating from the Rajamahendravaram airport. The relief operation would continue on Friday.

According to the AP State Disaster Management Authority (APSDMA), nearly 100 relief camps have been set up in the flood-hit districts.

Dowleswaram barrage engineers said the flood would severely affect 20 mandals in Konaseema district, eight in East Godavari, five in ASR, four in West Godavari, three in Eluru and two mandals in Kakinada.

In Eluru, the district administration evacuated nearly 5,500 persons belonging to 1,700 families from Velerupadu, Kukkunuru and Polavaram mandals to rehabilitation centres.

In Rampachodavaram Agency region of ASR district, people in the flood-affected villages found shelter on nearby hillocks. District Collector Sumit Kumar visited the remote villages. As many as 36,231 people were shifted to 54 rehabilitation centres.

The burnt car in which the charred body was found near Henuberu in Byndoor

UDUPI police on Thursday have cracked a murder case after they spotted a burnt body inside a charred car near Henuberu in Byndoor on Wednesday.

As the body was charred beyond recognition, it was difficult to even identify if it was a man or a woman till Thursday morning. However, the police later confirmed that the victim was a man.

Four people — Sadananda Sherigar (54), a resident of Maala in Karkala, Shilpa (40) from Hirgana, Sathish (50) and Nithin (40) both residents of Shirva — were arrested. Sathish and Nithin were arrested for tampering with the evidence.

Police source told The New Indian Express, Sadananda who worked as a licensed land surveyor, forged a land document and prepared a sketch of a property showing a road attached to it a few days ago. However, in reality, there was no road to the said property.

A case against Sadanand was registered in this regard by Karkala police based on a complaint. As a chargesheet was filed before the court, Sadananda also got a summons from the court. Recently, the court sent a warrant to him, he feared of his arrest. Hence, he staged his own murder. Taking help from his associate — Shilpa who earlier worked in a government office on contractual basis, picked a man of the same age group and travelled with him till Byndoor. Two others helped.

The victim — Anand of Karkala was given spiked alcohol and was immolated with the car to show that this was the murder of Sadanand himself.

As Sadananda was elusive, police investigated this gruesome murder and cracked the case by finding the real motive.

From the wild to confines of zoo, tigress Sundari's life takes a tragic turn

Tigress Sundari

JUST three years in Odisha and Sundari's life turned topsy-turvy. From the wilderness of the forests of Bandhavgarh to an enclosure in Satkosia Tiger Reserve of Odisha, the large cat has finally ended up in a Madhya Pradesh zoo and will spend the rest of her life in captivity.

Her hunting skills are strong but the tigress carries too much human imprinting which she acquired during her stay in Satkosia after country's first big cat translocation project failed.

On Wednesday, the Kanha Tiger Reserve where the tigress had been kept in an enclosure after her return from the Raigoda enclosure in Satkosia in March last year, shifted the big cat to Van Vihar National Park in Bhopal. Their assessment was it would not be safe to release her back to the wild due to her prolonged exposure to 'human imprinting' and 'change in behaviour.'

"Sundari, during her stay in Ghorela enclosure, would come close to the zoo staff expecting feed from them. A tiger in the wild normally doesn't behave this way, Agarwal pointed out. "With such behaviour, released to wild conditions, the tigress may move near human settlements in search of food. Besides, it is stated that she had the tendency to attack humans during her release in Satkosia forests," Dr Agrawal said.

Sundari along with Mahavir, a male, was brought to Satkosia from Bandhavgarh Tiger Reserve as part of India's first tiger relocation project. Mahavir was translocated on July 6, while Sundari was released in the tiger reserve on August 17 in 2018.

The male tiger was found dead - caught in a poacher's snare - in Satkosia on November 14, 2018, while Sundari was tranquillised and brought back to the holding area in Raigoda after it reportedly attacked local villagers who had ventured into the forest leading to a law and order situation.

Oocytes case: TN Health Dept shuts scan centres

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

ABOUT a month after it came to light that a woman forced her 16-year-old daughter to sell her oocytes, the health department on Thursday ordered the immediate closure of four scan centres attached to private hospitals in Erode, Salem, Perundurai, and Hosur. The hospitals too will be shut within 15 days, once all the patients there are discharged, Health Minister Ma Subramanian said.

These four hospitals - Sudha Hospital (in Erode and Salem), Ramaprasad Hospital (Perundurai), and Vijay Hospital (Hosur) - along with Srikrishna Hospital in Kerala's Thiruvananthapuram, and Mathirutva Test Tube Baby Centre in Andhra Pradesh's Tirupati, violated the Assisted Reproductive Technology (Regulation) Act, Pre-Conception and Pre-Natal Diagnostic Techniques Act, and the Tamil Nadu Clinical Establishment Act, the minister pointed out, adding that legal opinions will be sought on shutting them down.

Sudha Hospital and Vijay Hospital will no longer be empanelled under the Chief Minister's Comprehensive Health Insurance Scheme anymore, and the Tamil Nadu Medical Council will be requested to take action against the doctors involved in the illegal sale of oocytes. The joint directors in Krishnagiri, Salem, and Erode have been told to take legal action against the hospitals, and the health department will ensure a hefty fine and jail term are given, the minister added.

As for the hospitals in Kerala and Andhra Pradesh, the Health Secretary will write to the respective State governments seeking action against the institutes, Subramanian said.

As per the Indian Council of Medical Research's guidelines, only women between the ages of 21 and 35 years are allowed to donate ova, as long as they are married, have given birth, and received their husband's consent. In this case, the girl was merely 16 years old, and a fake Aadhaar card was used, with a fake name and age.

Hubballi khadi unit stares at loss after Union govt amends flag code

AMIT S UPADHYE @ Hubballi

Workers stitch khadi flags at the flag-making unit in Bengeri, Hubballi | DHEMANTH

THE struggling khadi industry is facing a bleak future, thanks to a move made by the Union government. A few months ago, the Union government announced that all the residents in India should sport tricolours on Independence Day, August 15 under the 'Har Ghar Tiranga' programme.

In a bid to get large number of flags on the I-Day, the Union government brought an amendment to the flag code and also allowed flags made of polyester to be hoisted - not khadi. The order has hit the Khandi national flag-making unit in Hubballi even as it was expecting a surge in flag orders this year. However, the orders this year have dwindled when compared to last year.

In July 2021, the only BIS certified khadi national flag making unit in Bengeri of Hubballi had received close to 90 lakh orders of national flags of different sizes. This year, the current orders hover around just 14 lakh. The union ministry's action has hit the regular business of khadi flags as well.

The Karnataka Khadi Gramodyog Samyukta Sangh of Hubballi has now sent letters to Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Home Minister Amit Shah and a delegation met Union Minister Pralhad Joshi in Hubballi recently. Joshi has assured the Sangh that he will take up the matter with the union ministry but there has been no positive response.

Besides Sangh, several khadi loving institutes and individuals across Karnataka are penning letters to the Union government to ensure more khadi flags are used in the celebrations.

The central government's programme aims to see 26 crore residences in India, government offices, education institutions and private entities to have tri colour for a week long celebrations.

REINVENTING THE WHEEL OF THE COUNTRY'S HISTORY

Scarcely has the Karnataka government emerged from the textbook revision controversy than it has waded into a new one, again to do with education. Position papers submitted by various committees encourage the questioning of established scientific theorems and attempt to trace their origins to ancient Indian knowledge, giving glimpses into a larger plan: an assertion of cultural identity and ideas. The paper advises that whatever current textbooks contain should not be accepted as "infallible truth", and "fake news" such as Pythagoras theorem and Newton's law of gravity were "created and propagated". It recommends teaching Sanskrit as the third language and introducing Manusmriti and ancient numerical systems, such as Bhutasankhya and Katapayadi-sankhya paddhati, in the syllabus.

Karnataka National Education Policy (NEP) task force head Madan Gopal says the paper is a status report every state has to upload into the public domain, and will be considered while formulating the National Curriculum Framework. Though it may only be the opinion of thinkers formulating our education policy, it is worrisome, and an indication that saffronisation of education, imposition of language and reorienting of the educational paradigm is a work in progress. It is also an attack on the left-liberal ecosystem, termed "intellectual fascism" by Gopal, and will no doubt invite serious opposition. While a questioning of concepts is laudable, it should not push our educationists into reinventing the wheel to satisfy a quest for cultural glorification and send our students into educational la la land.

The content of the papers has been met with disbelief by civil society and is the latest in a series of controversies that have dogged education since last year—the hijab row and saffronisation of the state's syllabus textbooks. Protests against the Rohit Chakrathirtha committee for omitting historically important icons and introducing controversial figures forced the government to backtrack and re-revise its textbooks, resulting in a loss of face. Instead of experimenting with more divisive ideas, the government should mitigate the effects of the pandemic on education—the state is said to have over 10 lakh out-of-school children and improve its schools, besides ensuring smooth adoption of the NEP across private and public sectors.

A CELESTIAL PEEP BACK IN TIME

The world gasped when NASA released the James Webb Space Telescope (JWST) images of celestial systems millions of light-years away. Such high-quality images of distant galactic clusters open our minds to an unimaginably humongous and infinite expanse of the universe.

The NASA-led collaboration with the European Space Agency and Canadian Space Agency launched the $10-billion JWST, the largest-ever space-based optical telescope, in December 2021. It is orbiting at Lagrange Point 2, about 1.5 million km behind the Earth as viewed from the Sun. Its distance from us is four times the distance to the Moon. That is a fantastic depth of field of the universe to observe. Its mirror is three times larger than the Hubble Telescope's. Besides, unlike JWST, Hubble's closer-to-Earth orbit restricts it from peeping as far back in space and time. Its largest image is also the most striking, with a resolution of 150 million pixels, constructed from about 1,000 image files. The photograph shows Stephan's Quintet, a grouping of five galaxies in the Pegasus constellation called Hickson Compact Group 92. French astronomer Édouard Stephan discovered it in 1877. One of the five galaxies, NGC 7320, is 40 million light-years away. The rest (NGC 7317, NGC 7318A, NGC 7318B, and NGC 7319) are a bit farther—just about 290 million light-years away. The JWST images we are seeing now are what these galaxies looked like 40 million and 290 million years ago, respectively. The JWST can see back in time to just after the Big Bang.

Yet, we are still far from understanding the universe. Maybe mankind never fully will. We don't even know how many galaxies exist in the Local Group—those closest to the Milky Way in which our Solar System resides. The present count is 110, up from 50 two decades ago. We are ignorant about the number of stellar systems in the Milky Way. The JWST images are trailers for a thriller on the unravelling mysteries of the universe. But can we say, "Coming shortly"?

The Hindu has realised that if his religious assertion does not match that of the Abrahamic religions, Hinduism will die. In other words, to survive, the Hindu has mutated

COMING TO TERMS WITH THE "NEW" HINDU

SOUMYADIP SINHA

A SURYA PRAKASH

Former chairman of Prasar Bharati and Scholar, Democracy Studies

The communal situation is showing signs of deterioration in the country, with the Congress party and several other regional political outfits stoking the fires and encouraging grave provocation in different states and regions. Never before has the nation seen such widespread violence as during Ram Navami and similar religious festivals. Obviously, there is mischief afoot and it is now reaching a point of no return.

The Congress must take full responsibility for the deteriorating situation because having lost political power at the national level, the Nehru-Gandhis, who own and control the party, have been stoking the communal flames since 2014. They are in the "after me, the deluge" syndrome and want to show that after their ouster from power, India's social fabric has broken down. But, that is incorrect. Some other parties, who survive on minority appeasement, are also playing the same wicked game.

Beginning with Jawaharlal Nehru, there was always an underlying anti-Hindu sentiment in the Congress' policies and the party is now paying for the sin. Although the nation was divided in 1947 because Muslims wanted a separate Islamic State, the Hindu majority chose to build a secular, democratic India. But this extraordinary commitment to a plural, liberal society by the Hindus in the face of Muslim bigotry was neither acknowledged nor respected by the Congress. Instead, what the party did was mock the religious practices of the Hindus and their polytheism, while remaining blind to many obnoxious beliefs and practices in other religions. This became obvious when Nehru wanted to push through the Hindu Code Bill in parliament but was unwilling to effect reform in the Muslim community and other religious minorities. This indeed was the starting point of the problem.

When the Hindus chose to have a secular, democratic state, the Congress should have ensured that a uniform civil code would guide all communities in democratic India. Those who wanted Muslim Personal Law to prevail had, in any case, the option to move to Pakistan. But Nehru did none of this. Instead, he and his party began Muslim appeasement from day one. In later years, the Congress saw this as a permanent vote bank and made this part of its credo. Side by side, it began taking the Hindus for granted and even encouraged self-deprecation among the Hindus.

Since Nehru was a leading figure in the freedom movement and a towering personality, his obvious disdain for Hinduism injected a sense of shame among Hindus about their religion and culture.

Soon, other parties climbed onto the Muslim appeasement bandwagon and looted this much-cherished vote bank of the Congress and gained political power. The Hindus remained sullen, hapless spectators. Except for the Rashtriya Swayam Sevak Sangh (RSS) and its affiliates including the Jan Sangh, there were no political or social leaders who could articulate their concerns.

While all this went on for decades, simmering discontent was brewing among the Hindus. Then came the watershed moment: the Rath Yatra of Lal Krishna Advani to campaign for the Ram Mandir in Ayodhya and the slogan "Garv Se Kaho Hum Hindu Hein" (say with pride that you are a Hindu) in 1990.

This slogan was meant to galvanise the Hindus who had been made to feel inadequate, meek and submissive by the Congress.

As we progressed as a democratic nation, secularism degenerated into pseudo-secularism. For Muslims and Christians, secularism meant religious assertion, whereas, for Hindus, secularism meant religious negation. The more disdainful the Hindu became of his religion, the more "secular" he was regarded, but it was just the opposite for citizens of other religions

As we progressed as a democratic nation, secularism degenerated into pseudo-secularism. For Muslims and Christians, secularism meant religious assertion whereas, for Hindus, secularism meant religious negation. The more disdainful the Hindu became of his religion, the more "secular" he was regarded, but it was just the opposite for citizens of other religions.

This led to a slow build-up of resentment among the Hindus and finally, the dam burst. Today, the Hindu is as assertive of his religion and its practice as the Muslim, Christian or Sikh. And, this is supposedly illiberal and anti-secular. This is the line taken by the pseudo-secular brigade, many of whose members sport Hindu-sounding names like Ramachandra, Sitaram, Prakash, etc., and joining them are hotheads of other religions, who just want to go back to the good old days of the subdued Hindu.

Meanwhile, the Hindu has realised that if his religious assertion does not match that of the Abrahamic religions, Hinduism will die. In other words, to survive, the Hindu has mutated. He demands a new order, a new arrangement to ensure social harmony.

So, "Garv Se Kaho…." is now a reality. But, it took time for the idea to germinate—about 25 years. Suddenly, the Hindus have become visible, especially in elections and lately on the internet. "The Internet Hindu" has rattled the pseudo-secular brigade that had lived on a staple anti-Hindu diet under the Nehruvian umbrella. Where do we go from here?

So, what does the new arrangement entail? It entails a new equation between the Hindus and the Muslims and other religious minorities in which the minority religions will need to acknowledge the following:

1)That India is a secular, democratic nation because the Hindu majority willed it to be so.

2) That "secularism" cannot be a one-way street—all religious groups must adhere to the secular ideal.

3) Every kind of teaching and preaching which promotes hatred against other religious groups must be banned in all madrasas and such religious schools.

4) The Hindus have as much a right to religious assertion as the adherents of other religions.

Is this too much to ask? Do you think this is a tall order? Then, alas, there are no easy solutions to the emerging problem.

LONG COVID: WHY WE SHOULD NOT IGNORE IT

DR DEBANJAN BANERJEE

Consultant Psychiatrist, Apollo Multispeciality Hospitals, Kolkata

Covid-19 cases are rising again. India faces an impending threat of a fourth pandemic wave. Reminders are out to wear masks and maintain respiratory and hand hygiene. Testing is already on the rise. There is no reason to panic as of today, but one has to exercise caution and recall the lessons learnt from the second Covid wave. The Omicron and Delta variants dominated the third wave, but pulmonary complications and deaths were minimal. The latest wave may be no different.

However, even as the cases rise, we face a new concern daily in our clinics. We come across many cases of what is called 'Long Covid', (long-term consequences of the Covid-19 infection) which mostly affects the heart, lungs, brain, nervous system and mental health (the latter two being most common).

Take the case of Parimal, 50. He had a completely uneventful recovery from Covid a few months back. He was treated at home after he developed the symptoms and felt better after a week. Things were fine with him until recently when he started to feel that his thinking was hazy. He had no memory issues, but he began to find it difficult to multi-task, focus on his work and think in an organised fashion. He felt as if his mind was always "foggy". So much so, that he could not drive or attend office anymore.

Reema, 35, had a mild fever and an impaired sense of smell after she was detected with Covid. The weakness persisted for a month or so but was not impairing. Six months down the line, she started having fatigue. Taking a few steps or climbing a flight of stairs made her pant. She couldn't gym anymore and her heart always seemed to pound. Along with these concerns, she complained of an unbearable headache most of the time and that started affecting her mood. A few weeks later, she started to feel depressed and tearful throughout the day, unable to sleep and had irregular periods.

Ismail, 71, needed hospitalisation for Covid and recovered within two weeks. The shortness of breath lasted for a few weeks more and he needed oxygen infrequently. Since his recovery, he has started forgetting names, tasks, dates, etc. He often misplaces his clothes and spectacles and has problems calculating numbers. His family members note he is more irritable now and needs help with navigation. The memory issues only seem to deteriorate with time.

Such cases increasingly appear in our clinics these days. They are mostly a fallout of Covid infections of last year. Brain fog, weak memory, headache, depression and sleep problems are quite common and need urgent attention.

What are the common Long Covid symptoms?

General tiredness or fatigue that interferes with daily life, symptoms that get worse after physical or mental effort (also known as 'post-exertional malaise').

Neuropsychiatric (difficulty in thinking or concentrating—sometimes referred to as 'brain fog'), headache, sleep problems, dizziness when you stand up, pins-and-needles feelings, change in smell or taste, depression or anxiety.

The effects on the brain and mind are most severe, ranging from depression, anxiety, and insomnia to neuropathy, headache and strokes (due to the propensity for increased blood clotting). This is because the SARS-CoV-2 virus has an affinity toward the nervous tissue and can stay dormant in the nerves for long

Other symptoms include chest palpitations, diarrhoea, stomach pain, joint or muscle pain, rash, and menstrual irregularities.

Old age, unvaccinated individuals, the severity of infection, need for hospitalisation, use of steroids, the persistence of symptoms and pre-existing neuropsychiatric complaints are the risk factors associated with Long Covid. While some of the symptoms can persist for more than four weeks after the initial infection, they appear within six months of recovery in many cases. The effects on the brain and mind are most severe, ranging from depression, anxiety and insomnia to neuropathy, headache and strokes (due to the propensity for increased blood clotting). This is because the SARS-CoV-2 virus has an affinity toward the nervous tissue and can stay dormant in the nerves for long.

What is challenging though is that at times, such symptoms are non-specific and not detected by any diagnostic tests. This leads to an increased frequency of misdiagnosis and delay in seeking help.

Long Covid may not affect everyone the same way. In most patients, the symptoms slowly improve with time. However, in others, they may last for months, and potentially years, after the Covid-19 illness. Sometimes they may result in disability and poor quality of life.

Long Covid symptoms lack public attention and current research focuses more on acute infection and lung complications. But as cases rise once again, such symptoms are also rising exponentially.

While these long-term effects on the brain, heart and mind may not lead to direct fatality, they tend to be chronic, difficult to detect and treat, leading to economic burden, frequent changes of physicians, hospitalisations, family distress and psychosocial disability. Further, the presence of stigma about the pandemic and misinformation over the last two years can lead to delayed diagnosis of Long Covid. The consequences can be worse in certain communities facing health inequalities and marginalisation.

The most effective way to prevent Long Covid is vaccination and respiratory hygiene (masks) and hand-washing. Early detection, prompt treatment and isolation during initial infection can save patients from long-term consequences as well. Awareness about the symptoms of Long Covid can promote early diagnosis and management that can help people avoid years of disability and distress.

National disgrace

This is with respect to the incident in Kerala where the national flag and Coast Guard flags were dumped along with garbage. My question is this: When our leaders are interested only in filling their personal coffers instead of ensuring the welfare of people, what is this big idea of 'respecting' the flag?

P G Menon, Chennai

The good cop

This is with the reference to Applause pours in for Kochi cop who saluted national flag found in scrap (July 14). Love should be shown not only in words but also in actions. I appreciate and feel proud of Indian police officer Mr. Amal T K, who showed his love and respect for our country not only in words but also through his actions when he shifted the flags from the spot and saluted them. This will enhance the patriotism of Indian citizens.

Sagili Pradeep, email

Shame on Gota

This is with reference to Emergency amid Go-Ranil push (July 14). The fleeing of any leader without any information enrages the citizens. If he governs justly, why is there a need to go to another country? Why is he not keeping his word that he would resign? Shame on such an unfaithful leader. A good leader always stands with the people in any circumstance and does not run away like a coward.

George Frewin, Thiruvananthapuram

Herculean task

Sri Lankan President Gotabaya Rajapaksa fled his country after saying he would step down. But it seems like he was saying this just to buy some time. He appointed the equally unpopular PM Ranil Wickremesinghe as the acting president and then jetted off to the Maldives with his wife. Parliament Speaker Mahinda Yapa Abeywardena is hand in glove with this disgraced duo since he just speaks their script. It is a Herculean task for citizens to free their country from the clutches of such rulers.

S Sanjeevi Rao, Puducherry

People's leader

It is so heartwarming to see West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee stopping by a pani puri stall, making and serving puchka to customers in Darjeeling. Such gestures not only make people feel good but also help a leader understand the ground realities of a state that is under their power. Mamata Banerjee is an example of a good leader because she exudes simplicity. No wonder the people of her state elected her thrice as their Chief Minister.

INDIA FUELLING LANKA FLIGHTS

Fuel shortage: 41 flights from Colombo made landings in Kerala, TN in 15 days

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

REFUELING has led to 41 flights from Colombo landing in southern India within a fortnight, government sources said. Most such landings took place in Kochi, Trivandrum and Chennai.

"From June 29 to July 13 as many as 41 flights from Colombo made technical landings. If we take the count of flights that landed since May 27, the number is 94," said a source.

Aviation sources say these technical landings are like a blessing in disguise for airports like Trivandrum. These low-traffic airports now have the opportunity to earn some revenue.

The Kochi airport has an inbuilt hydrant fueling system that ensures quick turnaround for flights and are also offering a 25% landing fee discount. "We continue to stand with Sri Lanka in multiple ways. Airports in India like Kochi and Trivandrum allowed technical landings,'' stated the Indian High Commission in Colombo.

These technical landings from Sri Lanka also fed speculation about Sri Lanka's President Gotabaya Rajapaksa seeking safe passage through a commercial or defence aircraft in the garb of a technical landing. However, he opted to fly to the Maldives.

Meanwhile, Minister of Civil Aviation Jyotiraditya Scindia, also lauded the efforts made by India to support Sri Lanka. "The airports have gone beyond their call of duty by allowing technical landings from Sri Lanka. The gesture will go a long way in furthering our ties with our neighbour," he said.

Big I2U2 takeaway for India: Food parks, energy project

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

THE first Summit of I2U2 — India, Israel, the US and the UAE — took place virtually on Thursday, coinciding with the visit of US President Joe Biden to Israel and set a "positive agenda", according to Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

"We have identified joint projects in many areas, and have also prepared a roadmap to move forward in them. Under this framework, we have agreed to increase joint investment in six key areas of water, energy, transport, space, health and food security," Modi said after Summit discussions with Biden, Israel's PM Yair Lapid and UAE President Mohammad bin Zayed Al Nahyan.

The PM's home state Gujarat will be the biggest beneficiary of the investments announced during the Summit, which include $2billion on developing food parks and $300 million on setting up an advanced hybrid renewable energy project.

The UAE committed to investing $2 billion to develop a series of integrated food parks across India that will incorporate climate smart technologies to reduce food waste and spoilage, conserve fresh water and employ renewable energy sources. "The two states that have shown interest in this are Gujarat and Madhya Pradesh. The initial list of food grown under this include bananas, potatoes, rice and onion. This will help the small and marginal farmers and also generate employment opportunities," says Foreign Secretary Vinay Mohan Kwatra.

US and Israeli private sector will be invited to lend their expertise and offer innovative solutions like hydrophonics that would contribute to the overall sustainability of the project. These investments will help maximize crop yields and, in turn, help tackle food insecurity in South Asia and the West Asia, said the joint statement.

CUET begins today; last-minute anxiety, confusion grip students

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

AS the first-ever Common University Entrance Test-UG, the country's second biggest examination after NEET-UG in terms of sheer numbers of applicants, will begin from today, anxiety and confusion gripped students about the new exam pattern because many of them will be travelling long distances from their home cities to exam centres.

The online examination for CUET-UG 2022 will be conducted from July 15 to August 10, 2022.

The University Grants Commission assured the students that their request for a change of examination centre would be considered. Still, it didn't reduce the tension.

Phase 1 of the exam will begin on Friday in over 510 cities in India and ten cities abroad. The second phase will be in August. The last exam is on August 20.

UGC Chairperson, M. Jagadesh Kumar, accepted that students who are appearing for CUET-UG have requested for change of examination centre.

Requests for a change of centres are being considered by the National Testing Agency (NTA), and students need not feel anxious about it, Kumar said.

But that's not the end of their worries. Students complained about delays in receiving admit cards and less time for preparation for those appearing in Phase 1 of the CUET exam. Also, many complained that on the same day, they had to take multiple papers.

With 14.9 lakh registrations, CUET, the standard gateway for undergraduate admission in all central universities, is now the second biggest entrance exam surpassing the Joint Entrance Examination-Main's average registration of nine lakh.

NEET-UG is the most prominent entrance test in India, with an average of 18 lakh registrations.

Nearly 14,90,000 candidates have registered for CUET UG 2022, of which 8,10,000 have been allotted Slot I and 6,80,000 have been taken in Slot II of the CUET-UG 2022 exam.

These candidates have applied for 54,555 unique combinations of subjects across 90 universities, including Delhi University and Jamia Millia Islamia.

As there are a large number of subjects, a unique date sheet for every individual candidate has been created, said Kumar.

Accordingly, advance intimation slip for examination city to all candidates with the date and city of the exam has been issued followed by admit cards, the UGC Chairman added.

Candidates who have opted for Physics, Chemistry or Biology have been assigned for Phase 2 of the CUET exam given the NEET (UG) 2022 will be held on July 17.

Elaborating on the scoring format, Kumar said it would be the NTA score in percentile format. "The score will indicate a candidate's position vis-a-vis other candidates who took the test. It is an indicator of the candidate's relative position," he said.

Kumar, in March, had announced that CUET scores, and not Class 12 marks, would be mandatory for admission to 45 central universities, which can fix their minimum eligibility criteria.

Centre presses states on Sputnik V jab coverage after poor response

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

CONCERNED over the low uptake of the precaution dose of Sputnik V vaccine, the Centre on Thursday directed states and Union Territories to increase its coverage among the beneficiaries.

In a letter to the states, Union Health Secretary Rajesh Bhushan asked them to ensure the availability of the Sputnik V vaccine and the functionality of the private vaccination centres. Noting that it has been observed that uptake of precaution dose of Sputnik V is only 0.5% of those who are due for it, Bhushan said that the beneficiaries who have received two doses of Sputnik V vaccine might be administered precaution dose using Sputnik V (Component I) at private Covid vaccination centres (CVC).

Booster along yatra routes

As all adults will start getting free booster doses of the coronavirus vaccine at government centres for the next 75 days from Friday, the Centre asked states to launch special drives along yatra routes and office complexes.

In a virtual meeting with states, Bhushan on Thursday said precaution dose uptake among population groups over 18 years is a mere 8%. He asked states to organise special vaccination camps on various yatra routes, melas and congregations, office complexes – both private and public —, industrial establishments, railway stations, inter-state bus stations, schools and colleges to increase the uptake of the booster doses.

The government is providing free booster doses to all adults above 18 years for 75 days as part of 'Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav' to celebrate the 75th anniversary of India's Independence. The drive will end on September 30.

Road links lead to early stocking of essentials for soldiers in Ladakh

MAYANK SINGH @ New Delhi

INDIAN Army soldiers positioned along the Line of Actual Control (LAC) in eastern Ladakh will not have to worry about essential supplies even if the logistics links are cut off due to adverse weather.

Good road infrastructure and planning has made winter stocking easy.

"Good roads and management of high altitude passes have ensured an early start to the stocking exercise which is essential not for soldiers but also for the administration and the civil population. We are also able to space out the movement of heavy load as pressure of criticality has been removed due to road links," said an Army source.

Fuel, oil and lubricants, which do not have a shelf life, have already been kept as per the planned stock. Also, as the passes are closed late and they also are opening early, there is flexibility that the perishable items can be stocked later, sources said. Medicines are yet another part of essential items other than ammunition.

Ladakh used to be cut off from the rest of India for around six months as it is linked by only two land routes with the rest of India. These are Srinagar-Leh road and Manali-Leh road passing through Sarchu. These roads pass through several high altitude passes and mountain ranges that receive heavy rain and snow, forcing closure of passes and making it difficult to supply heavy loads.

The strategically important Zojila Pass (located at a height of 11,643 ft) on 434-km Srinagar-Leh Road was closed only for 73 days this year.

The 475 km Manali Leh road goes through five important high altitudes passes —Rohtang (14,216 ft), Baralachla (16,047 ft), Tanglangla (17,582 ft), Lachungla (16,616 ft) and Nakeela (16,170 ft).

ED arrests NSE's former MD in phone tapping case

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

THE Enforcement Directorate on Thursday arrested former MD of National Stock Exchange, Chitra Ramakrishna, in a money laundering case connected with alleged illegal phone tapping and snooping of stock exchange employees. The arrest came after getting the nod from a Delhi court to probe the matter.

Special Judge Sunena Sharma allowed four-day custodial interrogation of Ramakrishna. "The ED has sufficient grounds to proceed with the investigating into the allegation of money laundering and to seek custodial interrogation of the accused to unearth the deeper conspiracy, the involvement of other accused persons, and their entire modules operandi. Accordingly, the accused is remanded to ED custody till July 18," the judge said.

The former NSE MD was produced in the court from Tihar Jail on a production warrant issued against the accused on a plea filed by the ED. After the accused was produced, the ED took permission from the court to interrogate her. Later, the agency formally arrested Ramakrishnan on the ground of non-cooperation and again produced her before the court and urged for her nine-day custodial interrogation.The court, however, granted her four-day custody to the agency.

ED's Special Public Prosecutor N K Matta said Ramkrishna was required for custodial interrogation as she was 'directly or indirectly indulging in or knowingly assisted in and was actually involved in all process or activity connected with the proceeds of crime.

No urgent hearing on plea against HC's hijab order

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Thursday refused to accord urgent hearing to a public interest litigation (PIL) seeking a direction to the Centre and states to implement a common dress code for staffers and students in registered educational institutions for securing equality and promoting fraternity and national integration.

A bench headed by Chief Justice N V Ramana was urged by lawyer Ashwini Upadhyay that his PIL be also listed for hearing like the batch of appeals filed against the Karnataka High Court verdict on the hijab row.

On Wednesday, the bench, also comprising justices Krishna Murari and Hima Kohli, took note of the submissions of lawyer Prashant Bhushan and agreed to list next week the petitions challenging the Karnataka High Court verdict refusing to lift the ban on hijab in educational institutions of the state.

At the outset, Upadhyay said this is a matter pertaining to the common dress code.

"Every day you file a public interest litigation. How many matters have you filed? As if there is no regular litigation. I do not know, in every case you come and mention. It will come in due course. Wait…," the bench said.

Nupur case: AG says no to contempt against ex-judge

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

ATTORNEY General K K Venugopal has not given consent to initiate contempt proceedings against former Delhi High Court judge SN Dhingra and two others for criticising the Supreme Court over its observations against suspended BJP leader Nupur Sharma.

Advocate C R Jaya Sukin had sought the Venugopal's consent to initiate criminal contempt of court against Dhingra, former additional solicitor general (ASG) Aman Lekhi and senior advocate K Rama Kumar for calling the top court's observations in Nupur Sharma's case "irresponsible, illegal and unfair".

Venugopal said the statements made by the three people were neither "vituperative nor abusive" nor were they likely to interfere with the administration of justice by the SC.

"I've gone through your request seeking consent to initiate proceedings for criminal contempt against Justice (retd) S N Dhingra, Lekhi and Rama Kumar…The statements are not vituperative or abusive nor are they likely to interfere with the administration of justice…the SC, in a number of judgements, has held that fair and reasonable criticism of judicial proceedings would not constitute contempt of court," he said.

Zubair moves SC for quashing of six FIRs against him in Uttar Pradesh

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

ALT News co-founder Mohammed Zubair on Thursday moved the Supreme Court seeking quashing of six FIRs lodged against him in different districts of Uttar Pradesh. In his fresh plea, Zubair has also sought interim bail in all six cases and has challenged the constitution of the Special Investigation Team (SIT) by the UP government to probe the six cases against him.

The plea said that all the six FIRs filed in UP that have been transferred to the SIT are the subject matter of the FIR which is being probed by the Delhi Police special cell.

In the alternative prayer, the plea also sought clubbing of six FIRs with the FIR lodged in Delhi in connection with the case in which Zubair been arrested by the police.

On Thursday, a local court is UP's Hathras sent him to 14-day judicial custody. He was produced in the court by Delhi Police, responding to an arrest warrant B issued against him. Zubair has two FIRs lodged against him in Hathras in 2018 for promoting enmity between different groups on ground of religion and ouraging religious feelings.

Meanwhile, a Delhi court reserved the order on the bail plea filed by Zubair in a case related to an 'objectionable tweet' he had posted in 2018 against a Hindu deity for Friday. On July 1, the Delhi High Court had sought a response from Delhi Police on Zubair's plea challenging the legality of his police remand. The matter is listed for hearing before the High Court on July 27.

During the hearing, when the court inquired if the Delhi Police had collected the statements of people who had felt offended by Zubair's alleged objectionable tweet, the public prosecutor said the same will be done in due course.

Foreigners Tribunals suffer due to lack of infrastructure

200 new FTs now 'attached' with original 100 quasi-judicial bodies

CHANDAN NANDY @ New Delhi

EVEN as the Union Home Ministry recently disbursed its budgeted allocation for operationalising the 200 additional Foreigners Tribunals (FTs) across Assam, the same number of members have been "attached" with the original 100 quasi judicial bodies as no new infrastructure has been provided.

MHA officials were chary in revealing the amount disbursed to Assam government in May. However, in a May 2019 letter to the Assam chief secretary, the MHA had granted "in principle" approval to the state government's proposal to initially set up 400 FTs at an estimated cost of ₹563.6 crore. The target was then brought down to 200.

Lakhs of appeals related to persons whose citizenship could not be established during the NRC exercise, are not being heard as the rules governing the 2019 Citizenship Amendment Act are yet to be framed. The FTs are mandated to adjudicate whether a person is a foreigner or an Indian citizen.

The 200 FTs were to become functional from Sept. 1, 2019. However, they remained idle for six months due to lack of work. In March 2020, the members were given the task of disposing over 1 lakh "pending references" arising out of the NRC exercise. Fifty new members were designated as "attached members" with 50 of the 100 original operational FTs in August 2020. But there was little infrastructure for them.

"Not only buildings, each tribunal lacked furniture among other things," an advocate associated with a 2021 Gauhati HC case involving the state government, Centre and Accountant General, said. "The Assam government did not respond over the lack of infrastructure," the advocate added.

After an Oct. 2021 meeting chaired by Assam chief secretary, a government "policy decision" did not "assign regular work" to the members "since possibility of NRC rejection slip being issued in (the) near future is very bright".

However, an order placing the 200 members at the disposal of the original 100 FTs was issued in January. "This means that the Centre has allocated the budgeted amount for setting up the 200 FTs which are only on paper," a source said.

Start delayed for months

The 200 Foreigners' Tribunals were to become functional from Sept. 1, 2019, as a result of a May 2019 Supreme Court order. They are part of the 1,000 proposed FTs whose establishment, sources said, "will now be delayed".

The FTs are not functional because the rules governing the CAA have not been framed. There are a lot of grey areas

Hurdles to smooth functioning

While each of the Foreigners' Tribunals members are paid ₹90,000 monthly salary (about ₹22 crore annually for 200 members) besides perks, the problem has been compounded by the Assam government's failure to appoint about 2,000 employees such as peons, attendants, computer operators etc, making it difficult for the members to execute their tasks.

INFLUX FROM NEIGHBOURHOOD

Wary of illegal foreign immigrants, Manipur tribal groups demand NRC

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR @ Guwahati

THE controversial National Register of Citizens (NRC) now resonates in Manipur that shares a border with Myanmar.

Alarmed by the alleged influx of illegal immigrants from Bangladesh, Nepal and Myanmar, 19 tribal organisations of Manipur have urged the Central government to set up "centres of operation" for the immediate detection and deportation of foreigners.

In a joint memorandum, they urged PM Narendra Modi to safeguard the genuine citizens of the state through the implementation of the NRC.

They said the immigrants had settled down "autonomously" in the state since the abolition of pass permit/permit system on Nov 18, 1950 by the then Chief Commissioner Himmat Singh. "No discerning step was taken on the issue in the last 75 years under the Foreigners Act, 1946. This continuous influx and overflow has subsisted within us and taken possession of the socio-economic and political rights of the indigenous people," the organisations wrote to the PM.

According to them, non-tribal immigrants from Bangladeshi and Myanmar occupied the Jiribam Assembly constituency and also got scattered in the Imphal valley.

Likewise, they claimed, lakhs of tribal immigrants from Myanmar and Lushai (Mizoram) settled down in the state.

"They have now counteracted ownership against the occupant indigenous people in hill areas," the organisations alleged. They claimed the 'Nepali' population also increased "tremendously".

Manipur – largely a hill state – and Nagaland, Mizoram and Arunachal Pradesh are protected by the Bengal Eastern Frontier Regulation, 1873 or Inner Line Permit (ILP). The ILP is an official document that allows inward travel of Indian citizens from other states into these protected states for a limited period.

The tribal organisations said although ILP was implemented in Manipur, the indigenous populace has not yet been defined. They were confident the Centre would identify the indigenous people, who trace their origin to the seven "Yek Salai" (homogeneity of clans), based on "autochthonous" (indigenous rather than descended from migrants or colonists) of the land.

"They are the sole indigenous people of Manipur who habituated and belonged only to this state with records of pre-historic kings who ruled the Yek Salai kingdom," the tribal bodies said.

They lamented that successive governments in Manipur did nothing although two agreements were signed in 1980 and 1994 for the detection and deportation of the immigrants.

"Union Home Minister Amit Shah had said on Nov 19, 2019 that NRC would be implemented throughout the country. In light of this, we call for the implementation of NRC in Manipur to safeguard the genuine citizens. It is also our request to the Central government to open 'centers of operation' for the detection and deportation of foreigners immediately," the organisations further wrote in the memorandum.

Political activities yet to pick up in Valley

With the first-ever Assembly election for Jammu and Kashmir Union Territory likely to be held later this year, the political activities are yet to pick up or gain momentum in the militancy-hit Valley. In the Valley, which faced over four months of tough clampdown after Article 370 revocation, the political parties and politicians are not showing any urgency to reach out to the masses to gain public support for the polls. Barring BJP, which is holding some functions, other parties especially National Conference, PDP, Peoples Conference, Apni Party and Congress have not held any major political rally signalling their intention for going into the poll mode.

Patient-specific cranial prosthesis of mesh

Research teams from the National Institute of Technology (NIT) Srinagar and Sher-i-Kashmir Institute of Medical Sciences (SKIMS) at Soura (in pic) have jointly developed the first patient-specific cranial prosthesis of titanium mesh that will reduce 15 minutes of surgery time. The patient-specific cranial prosthesis of titanium mesh, which will reduce 15 minutes of surgery time, was successfully implanted in a patient at SKIMS on July 1. The joint team included Prof Abrar Ahad Wani, Prof Altaf Umer Ramzan of SKIMS, Prof Rakesh Sehgal, Director, NIT; Dr Sheikh Ghulam Mohammad, ex-Associate Prof, Prof Sheikh Nazir Ahmed, Prof Mohammed Farooq Wani, Dr Mohammad Mursaleen and PhD Scholar Imran Ali.

Welfare board for trans representation

The Lt Governor administration in Jammu and Kashmir has formed a welfare board for transgender persons with a view to protect their rights and interests. The board has been constituted in terms of Clause 10 (1) of the Transgender Persons (Protection of Rights) Rules to facilitate their access to schemes and welfare measures. The community has welcomed the move saying it will go a long way in alleviating their condition. They, however, expressed disappointment that the board doesn't include a transgender person.

Gujarat falls into chaos amid heavy downpour

NDRF team shifts residents from a rain-hit colony in Navsari on Thursday | PTI

HEAVY rains in Gujarat have inundated highways, disrupting vehicle movement between Mumbai and Gujarat. National Highway 48, from Alipore in Navsari district to Valsad, was temporarily closed on the orders of the administration on Thursday morning. Similarly, three national highways in Kutch, Navsari, and Dang districts were blocked due to damage caused by the downpour.

Vehicles coming from Mumbai to Gujarat were stopped near Vapi, resulting in massive traffic clogging on the highway.

Navsari Collector Amit Prakash Yadav said, "Because of heavy downpour, the Kaveri, Purna, and Ambika rivers are overflowing, resulting in many villages getting flooded. The Purna exceeded the danger level on Wednesday. In all, 40,000 people were affected in adjoining areas, and 2,500 people were shifted to relief camps."

A flood-like situation continues to exist in Navsari, Gandevi and Jalalpore talukas, with Juj and Keliya dams in Navsari district overflowing after a gush of rainwater from the catchment areas.

"As heavy rain was forecast, a red alert has been declared in Junagadh, Gir Somnath, Bhavnagar, Surat, Tapi, Dang, Navsari and Valsad districts," Disaster Management Minister Rajendra Trivedi said. A total of 22 teams of State Disaster Response Force have been deployed at various places. Currently, 41 villages are without power, Trivedi added.

Two women labourers and a 16-year-old girl were killed after a boundary wall of a farmhouse fell on a temporary shed due to heavy rain, where they were living, on the outskirts of Ahmedabad on Thursday, police said.

The state has crossed 50 per cent of its seasonal rainfall in the past one month. More than 20 districts have received over 60-70 per cent of the season's rainfall in just two weeks.

Row erupts over IPS officer's remark on RSS; SSP gets show-cause notice

RAMASHANKAR @ Patna

THE BJP on Thursday launched a broadside against senior IPS officer and Patna Senior Superintendent of Police Manavjit Singh Dhillon for allegedly comparing the extremist Population Front of India (PFI) with the RSS, the ideological mentor of the party.

At a presser called on the arrest of three suspects linked to terror outfits in Phulwarisharif in Patna, Dhillon on Thursday said, "Like the RSS shakhas where physical training is given, the terrorist organization was propagating its agenda among youths in the name of physical training."

The remark snowballed into a controversy as Bihar ADGP (Headquarters) Jitendra Singh Gangwar later came out with a clarification on behalf of the state police.

He said the SSP's statement was unwarranted and that the matter would be verified. The SSP should concentrate only on investigation, he added.

A show-cause notice has also been issued to the SSP for his remark, asking him to reply within 48 hours.

Bihar BJP spokesperson Arvind Singh said. "The SSP's statement is highly condemnable. An officer with such a mindset should not continue as SSP of Patna," said the spokesperson.

"The RSS is a nationalist organisation. The government should take stern action against the SSP."

On the other hand, spokesman for the Hindustani Awam Morcha (HAM), a BJP ally, Danish Rizwan defended the SSP statement, asserting that there was nothing wrong in it.

Ahead of Prime Minister Narendra Modi's visit to Patna, the police arrested Mohammad Jallauddin, a retired police officer of Jharkhand police, and Mohammad Athar Parvez, a former member of the Students' Islamic Movement of India (SIMI) from Phulwarisharif in the state capital on July 11.

Later, one Mohammad Arman was arrested on the basis of information given by Jallauddin and Parvez whose brother was earlier arrested for his alleged links with serial blasts at Gandhi Maidan in Patna during meeting of then BJP's PM candidate Narendra Modi in October 2014.

Unconfirmed reports said two more suspects have been picked for interrogation in connection with Patna terror module. The identity of the detainees has been kept secret, an investigating officer said.

Preliminary investigation revealed that youths from different states, including Kerala, West Bengal, Tamil Nadu and Uttar Pradesh came to Phulwarisharif for training on the terror plot.

"Evidence of fund transaction from Pakistan and Bangladesh has also been collected," said ASP (Phulwari) Manish Kumar.

During a raid, the police recovered many incriminating documents and 25 flags of the PFI from the rented accommodation of the three suspects.

Meanwhile, Patna SSP Manavjit Singh Dhillon said that altogether 26 people have been named as accused in the FIR lodged with Phulwari police station. "Raids are being conducted to arrest others involved in anti-India activities," he added.

BJP offering money for Prez polls: Cong MLA

ANURAAG SINGH @ Bhopal

AHEAD of the Presidential election, Congress MLA Umang Singhar alleged on Thursday that BJP is offering huge sums to him and other tribal MLAs of the party to vote for NDA's candidate Droupadi Murmu in the July 18 election.

Singhar, who raised the issue at Congress legislature party meeting in Bhopal in presence of Opposition's nominee, Yashwant Sinha, later said in a video statement, "I've got an offer of ₹50 lakh from the district BJP president and a mediator. Others, like Lakhnadon MLA (Yogendra Singh) and Panchilal Meda, have also got such offers."

Singhar, a third-time MLA from Gandhwani in Dhar, also alleged that a link exists between the Presidential poll and the ongoing IT raids at multiple premises belonging to Congress MLA Sanjay Sharma.

"BJP wants to win the election by hook or crook, which is why it toppled the Maharashtra government. Instead of trying to buy tribal MLAs to vote for its candidate, it should work for welfare for tribals," Singhar said, without naming Murmu.

Attacking BJP, MP Congress president Kamal Nath said, "The BJP was already pressurising our winners of janpad and panchayat polls, but now it has not even left Presidential election."

Denying the charges, MP's Home Minister Narottam Mishra said, "Why will BJP resort to such tactics when everyone knows that it's winning the poll. By repeatedly alleging horse trading, Kamal Nath seems to be hell bent on putting a 'For Sale' tag on the forehead of his MLAs."

Sparring over support

The allegations were made a few hours after MP's Home Minister Narottam Mishra appealed to Congress MLAs to vote for Droupadi Murmu

Presidential candidates to lose 9,280 votes

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

THE Presidential candidates would lose 9,280 votes in Jammu and Kashmir in the absence of a Legislative Assembly, and no representative in Rajya Sabha. Only five Lok Sabha members, including three from National Conference and two from BJP, will cast their votes.

While Droupadi Murmu is certain to get 1,400 votes from the BJP MPs, Yashwant Sinha would get 2,100 votes from NC.

Each MP has a vote value of 700. However, with J&K having no Assembly, the candidates would lose 6,480 votes, as it has 90 seats, with the value of each vote till the abrogation of Article 370 being 72. Also, J&K does used to send four MPs to Rajya Sabha, making 2,800 votes.

The J&K Assembly would not be a part of this exercise for the second time. In 1992, a similar situation arose as Lok Sabha election could not take place in 1991 due to insurgency.

Congress should back NDA candidate, says UP leader Krishnam

Lucknow: Senior Congress leader and head of Kalki Ashram, Acharya Pramod Krishnam, has ruffled feathers in his party yet again by advocating support to NDA candidate Droupadi Murmu in the upcoming Presidential polls on July 18. Krishnam's views, tweeted on Wednesday night, are contrary to the Congress party line. He even suggested that the high command review the decision over the party's support to the presidential candidate. "Since the times of Pundit Moti Lal Nehru, the Congress has always stood by the exploited, deprived and tribals. In my opinion, opposing a woman, coming from tribal community, in the presidential election is not appropriate. Party high command should rethink over it," he tweeted.

Amid speculation, JMM finally extends support to Murmu

Ranchi: Amid speculations over political realignment in the state, Jharkhand Mukti Morcha announced its support for NDA's Presidential candidate, Droupadi Murmu, directing all its MPs and MLAs to vote for her during the elections to be held on July 18. The party said the decision was taken because Murmu is the first tribal woman to get the honour of becoming the Presidential candidate. The decision was taken by JMM chief Shibu Soren, who was authorised to take a decision during a legislative party meeting held on June 25. Welcoming JMM's decision, state BJP chief Deepak Prakash said, "I would also appeal to the tribal MLAs from Congress that they should also extend their support to the NDA candidate." The Congress, on the other hand, said JMM's choice is not going to affect their alliance. "This is their own decision, but we wanted that like-minded parties extend their support to Yashwant Sinha, but it did not happen," state Congress spokesperson Rakesh Sinha said.

'U'khand govt callous towards plastic issue'

NARENDRA SETHI @ Dehradun

THE Uttarakhand High Court has termed the conduct of the state government authorities as "insensitive" in the management and disposal of solid and plastic waste.

A division bench comprising Chief Justice Vipin Sanghi and Justice RC Khulbe remarked, "It appears that the state has become a large garbage dump. We fail to understand how commissioners, DMs, executive officers of civic bodies and officials in the State Pollution Control Board and the police can be so insensitive, and can shut their eyes to what is evident for all to see throughout the state."

The court took a serious note of the deteriorating environmental conditions and cleanliness of cities.

The court has directed the state government to file detailed replies. The order came on a PIL filed by Jitendra Yadav, in which he has pleaded that he has the right to live in a clean environment.

The court observed that as per law, the Central government was bound to take measures to protect and improve the environment.

Quoting the provisions in the prevailing law, the court observed that no person shall manufacture carry-bags or recycle plastic bags or multi-layered packaging unless the person has obtained due approval from the State Pollution Control Board.

The court directed that producers, importers and brand owners who do not register with the Uttarakhand State Pollution Control Board within 15 days will not be permitted to sell their products in the state.

The government will ensure that all such products contained in plastic sachets or pouches or packaging are not permitted to enter the state, it added.

US Fed mulls sharper 1% increase in interest rate

WASHINGTON

US Federal Reserve Governor Christopher Waller signalled Thursday a possible full percentage point interest rate hike — a move not seen for more than 30 years and a further indication of the Fed's determination to rein in sky-high inflation.

Waller also said that while fears of recession have increased, he believes the economy can avoid a downturn thanks to the strong US job market.

The Fed in March began aggressively raising borrowing costs to try to cool demand that has outpaced supply amid the impact of the Ukraine war and Covid-19 lockdowns in China.

But data so far have not shown significant signs of easing, and inflation reports this week showed prices rebounded in June, with consumer prices surging 9.1 percent.

Waller previously expressed support for another 75 basis point hike at the policy meeting later this month, but he said Thursday he will be watching key reports on retail sales and housing coming in before then. The increased cost of everything from food to fuel has squeezed the household budgets of American families and heaped pressure on President Joe Biden, whose approval ratings have taken a battering from the relentless rise in prices. "If that data come in materially stronger than expected it would make me lean towards a larger hike at the July meeting to the extent it shows demand is not slowing down fast enough to get inflation down," Waller said in a speech to an economic conference.

LANKAN AGITATORS VACATE SEIZED GOVT BUILDINGS

Protest leaders say demonstrations will continue till a new leadership is in place

COLOMBO

SRI Lankan protesters began retreating from government buildings they seized hours before Gotabaya Rajapaksa sent his e-mail resignation to the speaker's office on Thursday.

Images of protesters inside the buildings — lounging on elegant sofas and beds, posing at officials' desks and touring the opulent settings — have captured the world's attention.

They initially vowed to hold these places until a new government was in place, but the movement shifted tactics Thursday, apparently concerned that any escalation in violence could undermine their message following clashes the previous night outside the Parliament that left dozens injured.

A spokeswoman for the protesters announced Thursday that the protests will continue at other sites. "We are peacefully withdrawing from the Presidential Palace, the Presidential Secretariat and the Prime Minister's Office with immediate effect, but will continue our struggle."

Sri Lanka soldiers stands guard near the parliament building in Colombo | AFP

"The fear was that there could be a crack in the trust they held for the struggle," said Nuzly, a protest leader who goes by only one name. "We've shown what power of the people can do, but it doesn't mean we have to occupy these places." Devinda Kodagode, another protest leader, told The Associated Press they planned to vacate official buildings after the Parliament speaker said he was exploring legal options for the country given that Rajapaksa left without submitting his resignation letter as promised.

The decision to retreat from government buildings also comes as a top Buddhist monk who has supported the protests had earlier called for the more than 200-years-old presidential palace to be handed back to authorities and ensure its valuable art and artefacts were preserved.

"This building is a national treasure and it should be protected," monk Omalpe Sobitha told reporters. "There must be a proper audit and the property given back to the state." The rerteat also comes as acting President Ranil Wickremesinghe instructed security forces to restore order and declared a state of emergency.

Witnesses saw dozens of activists leave Wickremesinghe's office as armed police and security forces moved in.

By Thursday afternoon, the gates were closed with armed guards posted both inside and outside. Agencies

Security concerns delayed Gota's trip out of Maldives

Sri Lankan President Gotabaya Rajapaksa arrived in Singapore on a Saudi airlines flight on Thursday. He was scheduled to depart Maldives on Wednesday night on a scheduled Singapore Airlines flight. However, he could not board the flight due to security concerns, the Daily Mirror newspaper reported. Following this, efforts were made to secure a private aircraft for the embattled Sri Lankan President to depart from Maldives. He is expected to leave Singapore soon. His final destination is unclear.

Army refuses to carry out Ranil's order to use force

COLOMBO

RANIL Wickremesinghe, whom Gotabaya Rajapaksa named as acting president of Sri Lanka in his absence, on Thursday instructed security forces to do "what is necessary to restore order" and declared nationwide state of emergency and curfew were declared.

However, the armed forces refused to carry out his order, not wanting to be seen as anti-people and a tool of the doomed Rajapaksa regime.

The Army, however, urged the protestors to "desist from all forms of violence immediately or be prepared to face consequences"

It said that all heads of the armed forces and the police during meetings with the acting President Wickremesinghe, Speaker of the Parliament and political party leaders unanimously maintained that peaceful protests should not in anyway be dealt with full force, but with the minimum force as long as those protesters do not resort to violence or damage the public property.

The Army said "irrespective of those assurances a certain section of the protesters, purposefully deviating from its proclaimed non-violent approach continued to breach law and order and resorted to violence by trying to place the Parliament complex as well as the Speaker's official residence under siege."

It said that despite repeated appeals of Army personnel, the "unruly protesting mobs" on Wednesday tried to forcibly enter Parliament complex aggressively went on harassing and attacking the troops on duty using clubs, iron rods, stones, helmets, etc and snatched two T-56 weapons with ammunition rounds and caused injuries to a dozen of Army personnel. It said the army troops on Wednesday used minimum force and brought the situation under control. With Rajapaksa out of the country, Thursday's protests were more directed at Wickremesinghe. Agencies

Mordaunt is pollsters' favourite despite Sunak topping Round 2

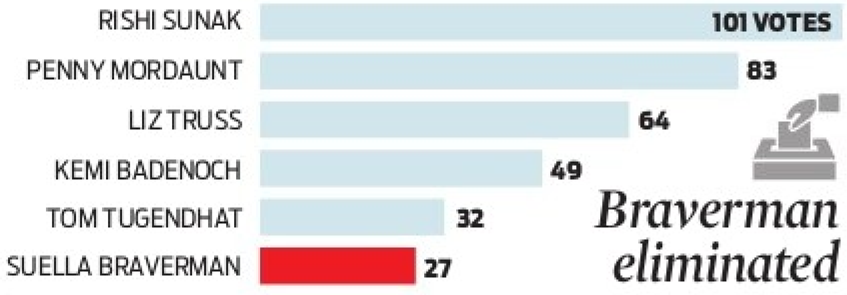
LONDON

FORMER British finance minister Rishi Sunak came out on top in the latest round of voting Thursday by Conservative MPs to decide Britain's next prime minister, followed by bookmaker favourite Penny Mordaunt.

The British Indian former Chancellor and son-in-law of Infosys co-founder Narayana Murthy looks set to be among the final two candidates to hit the campaign trail around the UK for hustings to convince the wider Conservative Party membership ahead of a postal ballot to decide the winner.

Though Sunak emerged on top in first and second rounds, polls point to Mordaunt beating Sunak, Truss and the others comfortably, once the party members decide between the final two candidates in the coming weeks.

The little-known Mordaunt, a committed Brexiteer who was briefly Britain's first woman defence secretary before she was demoted to less senior roles, has emerged as the darling of Tory grassroots members.



Braverman eliminated

But Mordaunt was savaged by her former boss in the Brexit ministry, David Frost, who called her unfit for office. And she is barely known nationally. A poll of more than 2,200 adults by Savanta ComRes said only 11 per cent could identify Mordaunt from her photograph, and only 16 per cent of Conservative voters. Two thought she was the singer Adele.

In the second round of voting by Conservative MPs, the Royal Navy reservist again came a strong second with 83 votes, behind former finance minister Sunak with 101. Foreign Secretary Liz Truss was third with 64 votes.

The five remaining candidates proceeding to the next round of voting by Tory MPs on Monday. AFP

LIC embedded value at ₹5.41L cr in FY22-end

Value of its new business margin for FY22 improved to 15.1% as against 9.9% in FY21

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

INDIA'S largest insurer Life Insurance Corporation of India (LIC) on Thursday reported its embedded value (EV) at ₹5.41 lakh crore as of March 31 2022, a bit higher higher than its EV announced during the time of its IPO.

"As on March 31, 2022, the IEV of LIC of India has been determined to be ₹5,41,492 crore as compared to ₹95,605 crore as on March 31, 2021 and ₹5,39,686 crore on September 30, 2021. The IEV as of September 30, 2021 was significantly higher than the IEV of March 2021 due to the bifurcation of fund that was carried out by LIC pursuant to changes in the LIC Act during the FY 2021-22," said LIC in a statement.

LIC also announced that the value of its new business (VNB) margin for FY22 improved to 15.1% as compared to 9.9% in FY21. The VNB for year ended March 31, 2022, has been at ₹7,619 Crore as compared to ₹.4,167 Crore for the year-ended March 31, 2021. The embedded value is a measure of consolidated value of shareholders' interest in the life insurance business and represents worth of shareholders' interests in the earnings distributable from the assets allocated to the business after sufficient allowance for the aggregate risks. LIC shareholders were not happy when its Board did not publish its EV at the time of reporting its Q4FY22 and FY22 results. The delay was one of the reasons, according to share market experts, that led to sharp fall in its share price.

LIC's shares closed at ₹712.15 on the BSE on Thursday and since its discounted listing on May 17, the stock has declined about 18%. Its market capitalisation stood at about ₹4.50 lakh crore. LIC also informed that Annualised Premium Equivalent (APE) for the year ended March 31, 2022, stood at ₹50,390 crore .

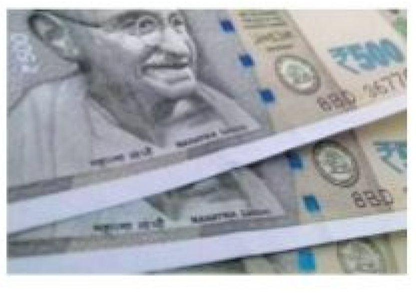
Re breaches 80 level against USD on offshore mkt

RAM SAHGAL @ Mumbai

THE spot rupee hit a fresh record low of 79.92 to the dollar on Thursday amid a stronger dollar even as the local unit breached the 80 mark on the offshore non-deliverable forward (NDF) market after data showed India's merchandise trade deficit widened to a record $ 26.18bn in June.

The currency unit pared some of its losses to close at 79.88 to the dollar. Forex market analysts like KN Dey of United Financial Consultants expect it to weaken further or 80.30/50 in the near term owing to the dollar index strengthening to 22 year highs against a basket of six of the world's leading currencies such as Euro and Yen.

However, Dey added that post breaching the highly oversold local currency unit could appreciate toward 78.80.



Government data showed that June's record trade deficit, which has reportedly caught the attention of the PMO, was driven by a surge in petroleum product imports by 119% yoy through $8.65 bn, gems and jewellery (25% to $3.53bn) and electronic goods (61% to $1.67bn).

Noting that the correction in crude and edible oil prices due to global recession fears could rein in inflation in India, the Department of Economic Affairs (DEA) in its monthly review for June said, "However, as long as retail inflation in India continues to be higher than RBI's tolerance level of 6 per cent, as it still is at 7 per cent in June 2022, stabilization policy measures will need to continue walking the tightrope of balancing inflation and growth concerns." On the current account deficit it said, " If recession concerns do not lead to a sustained and meaningful reduction in the prices of food and energy commodities, then India's CAD will deteriorate in 2022-23 on account of costlier imports and tepid exports on the merchandise account." Further, the widening of CAD has depreciated the Indian rupee against the US dollar by 6% since January through June.

Government likely to table SEZ bill in monsoon session of parliament

DIPAK MONDAL @ New Delhi

THE government is likely to table the much-awaited Bill to reform Special Economic Zones (SEZs) in the upcoming monsoon session of parliament, sources close to the development told TNIE. Monsoon session of parliament begins on July 18.

The proposed bill is likely to replace the existing SEZ Act with the new law, which will enable SEZs to become export hubs, as well as development hubs. Sources say the new legislation would no longer focus only on facilitating exports of goods and services, but strive to make SEZs hubs of economic activities. "The idea is to move from islands of exports to catalysts of economic and employment growth. Operational relaxations are envisaged (under the proposed legislation to ensure optimal utilisation of available space, infrastructure and manpower," says Anita Rastogi, partner, PwC.

She adds that the proposed legislation seeks to replace the present export and net foreign exchange (NFE)-based framework with a new eligibility criteria in terms of additional economic activity including exports, investment in research & development (R&D), advanced technology, innovation, promotion of priority sectors, employment generation and skilling. An exporter, on the condition of anonymity, says with India signing new trade pacts with the UAE, the UK and Australia, the country needs to bolster its export hubs to take advantage of these trade pacts. He, therefore, says the government must bring the legislation as soon as possible. Finance minister Nirmala Sitharaman in her budget speech in February has made an announcement in this regard. She had said in her speech that the new legislation "will cover all large existing and new industrial enclaves to optimally utilise available infrastructure and enhance competitiveness of exports".

New SEZ bill aims to boost exports

The proposed bill is likely to replace the existing SEZ Act with the new law, which will enable SEZs to become export hubs, as well as development hubs.

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

THE wholesale price-based inflation declined marginally to 15.18% in June from the record high of 15.88% in the previous month, as per the government data.

This is the 15th consecutive month when inflation has been in double digit. Inflation cooled off slightly on the back of marginal decline in the global prices of crude oil and edible oils.

The RBI keeps track of retail inflation for framing monetary policy. The next meeting of RBI monetary policy committee will take place on August 2-4. In a bid to control the raging inflation, the central bank has hiked the repo rate by 90 basis points in the last two months. It has made a forecast for inflation at 6.7% in FY 23.

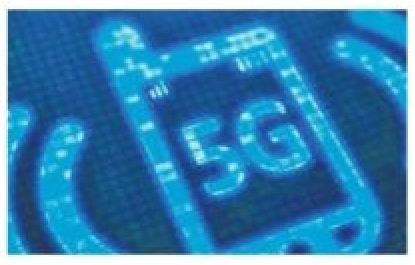
Airtel okays ₹5,000 crore fundraise from Google

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

TELECOM operator Bharti Airtel on Thursday approved a fundraising of over ₹5,000 crore through preferential allotment of 7.11 crore shares to US-based tech giant Google at an issue price of ₹734 per share. Following this deal, Google will hold 1.2% of total post-issue equity shares in Airtel.

"Special Committee of Directors for Preferential Allotment' of the Company has, at its meeting held today approved the allotment of 71,176,839 equity shares on preferential basis to Google International LLC at an issue price of Rs. 734 per equity share (including a premium of Rs. 729 per equity share)," said the company in an exchange filing. In January 2022, the search engine giant said it would invest $700 million in India's second-largest telecom company. The deal includes investment of $700 million to acquire 1.28% ownership in Airtel over the next five years and up to $300 million towards potential multi-year commercial agreements. As per the partnership, Airtel and Google will focus on enabling affordable access to smartphones across price ranges, and will continue to explore building on their existing partnerships to potentially co-create India-specific network domain use cases for 5G and other standards, and help accelerate the cloud ecosystem for businesses across India. "The paid-up equity share capital of the company will stand increased to "₹28,306,517,827.50 divided into 5,563,231,650 fully paid-up equity shares of ₹5 each and 392,287,662 partly- paid-up equity shares of ₹5 each", said the company. The deal will help the telco to bid in the upcoming 5G spectrum auction, which will take place on 26 July 2022.



COAI urges govt not to allot 5G on administrative basis

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

THE Cellular Operator Association of India (COAI); which represents Reliance Jio, Bharti Airtel and Vodafone Idea; on Thursday, again urged the Department of Telecommunication (DoT) not to provide 5G spectrum on administrative basis as it leads to no business case for the rollout of 5G networks in the country.

The comment comes after billionaire Gautam Adani's group made a surprise entry into the race to acquire 5G spectrum. "If the independent entities set up private captive networks with direct 5G spectrum allotment, it will diminish revenue so much that there will be no viable business case left for the TSPs and there will not remain any need for 5G network rollout by TSPs (telecom service providers)," said S P Kochhar, DG of COAI. Ever since the DoT released 5G auction guidelines, two industry bodies – COAI and Broadband India Forum (BIF) are at loggerheads. The telco body is opposing the government's move to provide direct allocation of 5G spectrums to enterprises to set up private 5G networks.

IAMAI DISSOLVES CRYPTO INDUSTRY BODY

UMA KANNAN @ Bengaluru

IN a huge blow to the cryptocurrency industry in India, the Internet and Mobile Association of India (IAMAI) has dissolved the Blockchain and Crypto Assets Council (BACC), which represents crypto exchanges in the country.

Sources aware of the development said this move is a dampener for the industry, which is already battling market volatility and 1% TDS, which has affected the trading volumes.

Already, banks have refused to work with crypto exchanges, and this move shows crypto regulations are likely to be adverse for the crypto ecosystem.

IAMAI, which has been representing sectors such as online gaming, digital payments, blockchain, big data and healthtech, among others, said it took the decision as a resolution of the regulatory environment for the industry is still very uncertain.

IAMAI wants to utilise its resources for other emerging digital sectors. Leading crypto exchanges such as WazirX, CoinSwitch Kuber are members of the BACC group, which has been nurtured by IAMAI for four years now.

It is still unclear whether BACC will function on its own with its existing members or will be dissolved. The BACC has introduced many guidelines for crypto trading. The industry representative body recently came up with advertising guidelines and all major exchanges are working with the BACC.

"With the recent market crash, the evolving regulatory environment, and additional clarity from the RBI and finance ministry, the industry now has a clear indication of the government's stance and future plans," said Gaurav Mehta, founder, Catax, an online crypto tax solution.

He added that the dissolution of the BACC is an acknowledgment that the belief about cryptocurrencies has been erroneous, and the voice was merely an echo of exchanges' interest in India. "Hereafter, crypto exchanges would have to wage their battle without an ally," he said.

Meanwhile, IAMAI said that it will continue to support activities of the BACC till the end of this month.

CBIC notifies GST rate changes, effective July 18

MONIKA YADAV @ New Delhi

AMID criticism over GST rate hike on hospital rooms rent of over ₹5,000, the Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs (CBIC) on Thursday notified the rate changes as decided by the GST Council in its 47th meeting held on June 28-29.

These changes will be applicable from July 18. The Council had decided to impose 5% GST on hospital rooms with rent over ₹5,000 excluding intensive care units.

"While healthcare sector is largely exempt from GST, levying tax on room rentals will increase the treatment cost. Levy of 5 % GST on room rentals above ₹5,000 without input tax credit is a regressive move. Availability of input tax credit is the basic fabric of GST, which gets defeated in this case. It is important for the government to re-look at this aspect," said Anita Rastogi, partner, GST and indirect taxes at PwC, after the government issued notification.

Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman had announced changes in various items including knives with cutting blades, spoons, forks, ladles, skimmers, cake-servers, fish-knives, butter-knives, sugar tongs and similar kitchen or tableware, bicycle pumps, parts of air or vacuum pumps and compressors of bicycle pumps, among others. Meanwhile, it had also imposed GST on hotel accommodation below ₹1,000/unit/day, bringing them on a par with those above ₹1,000 threshold.

ACC reports 60% drop in net profit in second quarter

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

ACC, one of the country's leading cement makers, reported a fall of 60% in consolidated profit after tax of ₹227 crore for the second quarter ended June 2022 (Q1FY23) from ₹569 crore in the same quarter last fiscal.

On a sequential basis, ACC's profit declined by 42.6% as the company had reported a profit of ₹396 crore in the March 2022 ended quarter. The quarter, according to ACC, was impacted by the moderation in demand and prices, as well as elevated costs of power and pet coke.

"The April to June 2022 quarter was impacted by rising global fuel costs and related inflationary impacts. We were able to mitigate part of this impact through our efficiency project 'Parvat'. The cost reduction journey will be accelerated with commissioning of waste heat recovery projects in Jamul, Kymore & Ametha plants taking the share of green power to 15%," said Sridhar Balakrishnan, Managing Director and CEO of ACC. Consolidated revenue grew by 15% year-on-year in Q1FY23 to ₹4,468 crore, while its cost of raw materials as a percentage of revenue from operations surged 250 bps from the year ago period to 15.5%.

FMCG giant Marico expects demand and near-term margins to improve

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

FMCG giant Marico expects demand and margin trends to improve towards the second half of next year. The company in its latest annual report said that the consolidated operating margin should be in the range of 18-19% in FY23.

"In the domestic business, while the near-term demand outlook is uncertain, we are confident of staying well-ahead of market growth and will continue to maintain sharp focus on driving penetration and market share gains across our portfolios aided by distribution expansion, aggressive cost controls, and sufficient investment in market development and brand building," the company said.

Marico is hopeful of a rural recovery in demand in light of the good harvest season, normal monsoon forecast and government spending.

In the medium term, the company said, it will aim to maintain consolidated operating margin above the threshold of 19%. "We hold our medium term aspiration to deliver 13-15% revenue growth on the back of 8-10% domestic volume growth in the domestic business and double-digit constant currency growth in the international business."

However, the company notes that unexpected changes in commodity prices and supply could impact business margins and ability to service demand.

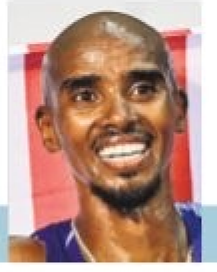
Cops open inquiry into Farah trafficking claim



London's Metropolitan Police Service has opened an investigation into four-time Olympic champion Mo Farah's revealed that he was trafficked to the UK as a child. The inquiry comes after Farah said in a documentary that a woman he didn't know brought him to the UK when he was about 8 years old.

Lack of clarity in selection

With Kohli not included in the squad, it cannot be ascertained whether former captain is rested or dropped

VENKATA KRISHNA B @Chennai

IN the absence of a press conference, it is hard to ascertain whether the national selectors have rested or dropped Virat Kohli for the T20Is against West Indies. The press release — apart from naming the 18 players picked for the tour — has only one added information, which is regards to the inclusion of KL Rahul and Kuldeep Yadav, whose availability for the series is subject to clearing fitness test. The selection committee led by Chetan Sharma has once again left it to the world to interpret their decision.

There is a strong chance Kohli has been rested alongside Jasprit Bumrah, Yuzvendra Chahal because India want him fresh for the upcoming challenges, which include a T20 World Cup in Australia in three months time. There is also a strong chance that Kohli has been dropped from the squad as in his absence, the likes of Deepak Hooda and Suryakumar Yadav have not only earned their spot, but have also shown India are not really missing the services of their former captain.

Sometime in the next three months, India have to take a call on whether Kohli is part of their plans for the T20 World Cup or not. If one goes by the current form, he doesn't merit a place as, in Hooda and Suryakumar, India have batters who are playing the T20s the way it should be played. But the World Cup is happening in Australia, where the conditions will be challenging for batters even on batting friendly pitches. In the team that is picked for West Indies, barring Rishabh Pant and Hardik Pandya, who are expected to take the middle-order slots, Hooda, Suryakumar and Dinesh Karthik are yet to play any T20Is in Australia. Which is why, India still believe Kohli will be crucial to their plans Down Under as his experience in those conditions will be quite handy.

Although there is no official word, a couple of selectors privately confirmed that Kohli was not picked for the West Indies series since he asked for rest. However, there is no guarantee that Kohli will get his place back for the Asia Cup which follows soon after the West Indies series.

Had Kohli been amongst runs, this would have been an easy decision. Here the selectors and the team management are facing a unique challenge. Since the last T20 World Cup in October-November, Kohli has missed the series against New Zealand, Sri Lanka and South Africa and will now miss the five matches against West Indies too. He is too good a player to be picked for the World Cup and be asked to warm the bench. And in the current form he isn't the first name on the team sheet either. The squad for the Asia Cup may well provide some clarity.

SQUAD FOR T20IS IN WEST INDIES

Rohit Sharma (C), Ishan Kishan, KL Rahul*, Suryakumar Yadav, Deepak Hooda, Shreyas Iyer, Dinesh Karthik, Rishabh Pant, Hardik Pandya, Ravindra Jadeja, Axar Patel, R Ashwin, Ravi Bishnoi, Kuldeep Yadav*, Bhuvneshwar Kumar, Avesh Khan, Harshal Patel, Arshdeep Singh.

*KL Rahul and Kuldeep Yadav subject to fitness.

Chahal completes redemption

GOMESH S @Chennai

YUZVENDRA Chahal wouldn't want to remember the last time he went up against England in an ODI before this series. Jonny Bairstow and Jason Roy smashed him for fun at Edgbaston in the 2019 World Cup. The leg-spinner went for 88 in his ten overs. Cut to 2022, after bowling just two overs in the first ODI, Chahal returned with 4/47 at Lord's — the first leg-spinner since Shane Warne in 1999 to do so at the venue — against the World champions on Thursday. England were all out for 246 in 49 overs.

While credit has to be given to the pacers for their control in the powerplay, Chahal did the crucial job, dismissing Bairstow, Joe Root and Ben Stokes. While the England opener tried to slog-sweep the spinner, something he had done with exception in 2019, this time, he failed, losing the stumps. Root, too, fell in a very similar manner, but was trapped. And with Mohammed Shami getting rid of Jos Buttler, England slumped to 87/4.

Qualification first goal for Sreeshankar

INDRANEEL DAS @Chennai

M SREESHANKAR and his coach are focused. The long-jump national record-holder begins his quest for glory on the first day of the World Championships in Eugene, Oregon on Friday. He may not be as big a favourite as Tokyo 2020 gold champion Neeraj Chopra, but, going by his season performances, he does sniff an 'outside' chance. A wee bit, but enough to keep the faith simmering.

Sreeshankar's father and coach, Murali, too is hopeful of a good jump on the day of the qualification on Friday. That's the first goal. "We have to jump above 8m and our focus will be to do that first and qualify," he said. The two reached Eugene on Thursday from Chula Vista, where they had their acclimatisation and training for around 10 days. The coach said their Chula Vista sessions were very good. "The diet too was quite good. The 10 days or so helped us get used to the US time and now we have reached Eugene for the big event. Here too things are fine and getting used to the food and accommodation," he said. Though others might find more time to 'adjust', Sreeshankar, along with 20km race walkers and shot-putter Tajinderpal Singh Toor (qualification), will be heading to the ground on Friday. Though there are quite a few who can overtake him based on their personal bests, the long-jumper will find it heartening that his national record of 8.36m is the tied-second best outdoor jump this season in the world. Olympic champion Greek Miltiadis Tentoglou, who is in the same Group B in qualification, is the other long-jumper to have cleared it. The qualification mark for long jump is set at 8.15m but best 12 will qualify.

Defending world champion Tajay Gayle (PB: 8.69m) too is listed in Sreeshankar's group. Decathlete-turned-long-jumper, Simon Ehammar, of Switzerland, whose 8.45m is the best this season, is in Group A alongside Sreeshankar's teammates Mohammad Anees and Jeswin Aldrin.

Russia vs Ukraine: Two sides of FIDE elections

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN @Chennai

INSIDE one of Chennai's biggest hotels on August 7, the World Chess Federation (FIDE) will go to polls. It has many subplots but it's hard to miss the identity of the incumbent, especially given the identity of one of the other three challengers.

The former is Arkady Dvorkovich, a 50-year-old Russian who has had direct links with the Kremlin. A Muscovite, he was deputy Prime Minister of the country and was the chairman of the Local Organising Committee of the 2018 World Cup. As head of FIDE since 2018, Dvorkovich played a key role in keeping the calendar going during the pandemic. Even as other international federations shuttered, FIDE showed enterprise in taking the Olympiad online. There will also be significant Indian interest in this election as Dvorkovich has one of the most respected names in world chess, Viswanathan Anand, as part of the ticket.

Then, there is Andrii Bolshyarets, one of the three contenders. More than a month after Russia's invasion of Ukraine, Bolshyarets, who lives in the US but is Ukrainian, started a petition. It called for the removal of Dvorkovich from FIDE. "FIDE keeps its accounts in Russian banks that are already under sanctions," the petition noted. "Namely, Sberbank, Otkrytie bank and Gazprombank. We demand resignation of Arkady Dvorkovich and cutting all FIDE financial and political ties with the aggressor country..."

PUBLIC NOTICE

Whereas our client, Mrs. Dipali Sikand has instituted a suit bearing O.S. No. 4427/2022 against the aforementioned parties being aggrieved by the actions of the Defendants in publishing false, misleading, malicious and defamatory posts on social media platforms about the Plaintiff and certain guests of hers who dined the "MindEscapes" club and misusing and mis-identifying the following photograph:

The Plaintiff sought reliefs of injunction restraining the Defendants, their family members, agents, assigns and/or representatives from making, writing, publishing and/or distributing or issuing any defamatory statements regarding Mrs. Dipali and her guests that dined at the "MindEscapes" club and consequently a mandatory injunction against Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, WhatsApp and Linkedin Corporation to take down/delete certain posts from social media and WhatsApp groups which defame the Mrs. Dipali Sikand and her guests.

Further, owing to the fact that the internet and social media platforms are vast, and it is impossible for the Mrs. Dipali to identify all the posts and the users who have created, shared and/or spread fake, false and defamatory information about her and her guests, Mrs. Dipali has also sought for an order of injunction against the unidentified Defendants i.e., John Doe/Ashok Kumar order.

The Hon'ble XII City Civil and Sessions Judge (CCH-27) upon hearing the Plaintiff, was pleased to grant an ex-parte ad-interim order of injunction on 12/07/2022, restraining Mr. Jagadeesh Laxman Singh Aka Jugie Singh; Mr. Siddharth Dey; Ms. Sonalika Kumar and John Doe/ Ashok Kumar, their family members, agents, assigns, representatives or any person acting on their behalf from writing, posting, publishing any defamatory, libellous content about Mrs. Dipali Sikand or her guests. Further, the interim order also directs various social media platforms such as Facebook, LinkedIn, Twitter and WhatsApp to take down all the contents, statements, which are defamatory or libellous to Mrs. Dipali Sikand and her guests, till I.A. Nos. 1 and 2 are disposed on merits, by hearing both sides.

Since a 'John Doe" order has also been passed, we urge the public to take down any posts/publications/forwards etc., which have been put up regarding the Plaintiff and her guests. Further, the Defendants named above are hereby directed to comply with the Order dated 12/07/2022 passed by the Hon'ble Court and are summoned to appear before this court on 18/08/2022 at 11:00 am in person or through an advocate/pleader to show cause.
